

Planes Hunt 14 on Dorries Adrift in Fog

THE WEATHER

Generally rainy today and tomorrow. Somewhat warmer, with temperatures near 40 tonight. Slightly colder Saturday night. Moderate and variable winds. High 35-40; low 30-35. Fog at times, but clearing at 4:30. AVERAGE TEMPERATURES
Boston 35
New York 35
Washington 35
Chicago 35
Los Angeles 35
San Francisco 35

VOL. XXXIV—NO. 229

Copyright, 1937, by N. E. Newspaper Publishing Co.
Entered as second-class matter at Boston Postoffice.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17, 1937

PRICE 2 CENTS

ZONE PRICE 3 CENTS

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

NEW ENGLAND'S GREATEST EVENING NEWSPAPER
The only Boston evening newspaper with direct news services—from Associated Press and International News Service

SPORTS

STOCKS

CLOSING PRICES

Fliers, Ships Hunt 14 in Fog at Sea

Coast guard cutters, non planes and patrol boats joined search today for seven missing fliers, lost off the coast of Maine.

According to word received by coast guard officials here from the keeper at Campobello lighthouse in the Bay of Fundy, the seven fliers, who were on the schooner Richard Numan of Portland, Me., and have not been heard from. The Coast Guard reported that an eighth dory, containing two men, but in safety at Machias, Me., at noon today.

The schooner was fishing near the Grand Manan rocks, off the eastern tip of Maine. Coast Guard officials said that fog and rain was reported all along the coast, and that the fliers lost contact with the schooner probably because of poor visibility.

Beside the seaplane which put out from the Salem air base, fliers Chasen and Algonquin and the patrol boats Argo and Travie are in the search.

The captain of the schooner said in his report for fact that the fliers had been in the water since yesterday.

With a high northwest wind and low temperature prevailing, coast guard officials said the fliers may have been blown far off shore and that every effort would be made to reach the men before they froze to death.

U. S. Tax Drives 'Babs' Abroad

NEW YORK, Dec. 17 (INS)—Tax experts here today expressed belief that prospects of collecting $30,000,000 in American estate taxes had vanished with the sailing of the former Barbara Hutton, the $45,000,000 Woodworth heiress who renounced allegiance to the United States.

As a "foreigner," the Countess Hatzfeldt-Reventlow's estate, which will eventually pass to her son, Prince, now 2, will not be subject to the estate tax which would bring the government an estimated two-thirds of its value, the tax experts believe.

The Danish citizenship which the Countess will now hold will not relieve her of American federal or state income taxes, which apply equally to foreigners and citizens with American income, but it will preserve her estate practically intact for her son if the estate tax is ruled inoperative.

The Countess renounced her American citizenship because of mounting tax burdens in this country.

This was indicated today as the Countess sped back to Europe aboard the liner Europa after a one-day stop-off in New York during which she completed the renunciation formalities in federal court here.

After her action was formally

U.S. Apology Mapped by Emperor

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17 (INS)—President Roosevelt summoned Admiral William B. Leahy, chief of naval operations, to the White House today for a discussion of the Fanny incident. Upon leaving, Admiral Leahy said:

"It is a very tense situation."

(Copyright, 1937)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17 (INS)—The Japanese government, in an expression of deep apology written at the imperial command of Emperor Hirohito, will comply fully with the demands of the American government on the Fanny bombing. It was stated by a high diplomatic authority today.

Japan's reply to America's sternly worded protest over the bombing of the United States gunboat and three American tankers was being prepared in Tokyo today and is expected to be dispatched to Washington shortly.

The reply, it was learned, is expected to furnish the United States with guarantees that steps have been taken which will prevent any possible recurrence of an incident similar to the Fanny attack by Japan's military forces in China.

The assurance, further, will state that American national property rights and interests in China will be strictly observed as inviolate by Japan.

Japan, this high diplomatic authority who is close to the Tokyo government declared, is eager to preserve its friendship with the United States unimpaired, and will maintain that the Fanny bombing was an "accident" incurred during the Japanese military operations in China.

Continued on Page 4, Column 1

'Santa' Fools Bloodhounds

Runaway Boy, 4, Safe As Poses Pant

MATWOOD, N. J., Dec. 17 (AP)—Four-year-old William J. Murray, 3rd, who disappeared so thoroughly bloodhounds and searchers failed to find him, was back at home today after a trip to New York "to see Santa Claus."

He was found in New York at the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Children home, where a subway guard had taken him yesterday.

From the story his father, William J. Murray, Jr., placed together, young William apparently got aboard the liner Europa after a one-day stop-off in New York during which he completed the renunciation formalities in federal court here.

After her action was formally

Bolivia Airliner In Crash; 8 Dead

LA PAZ, Bolivia, Dec. 17 (AP)—Five passengers and crew of three were killed in crash of a United States Airways plane, which left here for La Paz yesterday, airway officials said.

HEARS HOTEL DEATH SHOTS

Beano Breen, a Boston racketeer, was shot today in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel.

Helen Troy, a Boston stage dancer, heard the shots fired, one of which killed David J. "Beano" Breen, long-time boss of Boston rackets. She ran to the death scene, the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel. Later she was quizzed and released at Station 4. Miss Troy was one of a score of witnesses, found nearby an police arrived. Everybody was taken for questioning on a precaution.

$50 Cash Prizes Weekly Offered for News Tips

Begin today—We are all born reporters. There isn't anybody who is not ALWAYS a reporter, no matter the time or circumstances.

But when something happens suddenly it is a test of your alertness and the Boston Evening American and Sunday Advertiser are anxious to present an opportunity to you for being ALERT.

We will exchange your quick response to something for cash. Begin today—

And keep this simple definition in mind: A news tip is information that thousands of people want to know and see about.

A story... possibly a picture.

Every week a total of $50 in prize will be given for news tips received, $10 for the best tip, $10 for the third best and $10 for each of the 10 next most valuable tips.

You Can Win $15,000.00

Turn in Page 26

Race Chart 'Strong Arm Man,' Pal of Preston, Shot in So. End

Rackets Hurl Death Challenge to State

By ANTHONY MERRILL
(Copyright, 1937, by the Boston Evening American)

Boston gangland today assassinated its toughest leader, "Beano" Breen—brazenly mocking the state's bogged-down drive on rackets.

Breen was rackets personified.

A long-nosed gunman casually shot him at 12:50 this morning while he stood talking in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel in the South End's theatrical district.

CHALLENGE RACKET-BUSTERS

Breen died at 3:14 on the operating table at City Hospital.

His slayer escaped, casually as he killed.

The murder was an underworld taunt and an open challenge flung at Governor Hurley's racket-busters.

Boston police said they thought labor-racketeering supplied the motive for the murder.

Others saw a definite link with the recent slaying of Louis Gaeta, Reverse gambling king, with which James G. Preston is charged and for which he is sought.

Breen was friend, confederate and protector of the fugitive Preston, his "front man" in some occasions of racket trouble, his bondman in others.

STRONG-ARM CHART MAN

And the Boston Evening American learned exclusively that records recently seized by the state's racket-busters showed Breen on the payroll of a state-wide racing service used by Preston. Breen was the strong-arm man for the service for three years.

So, many theorized that gang friends of Gaeta wiped out Breen.

The facts are that the authorities don't know positively who he was killed or who killed him. They seized 17 persons for questioning. Eight of them were showgirls who either lived in the Metropolitan or happened to be near the lobby at the time of the slaying. They were all released.

The nine others were men, at least one of whom is believed to have witnessed the killing. All but two of these were turned loose.

Whatever the motive and whoever the slayer—rackets lay in the foreground and the background of the killing.

Breen personified racketeering in Boston for 20 years. He was its toughest and its most colorful figure. He ruled it with fists alone. He was 45 years old and he

Continued on Page 3, Column 1

A close-up of "Beano" Breen on the hospital carriage which wheeled him into the operating room at City Hospital, where he died more than two hours after he was shot while in the lobby of a hotel. Five shots were fired by a swarthy killer, wearing colored glasses. To the left, Breen refused to talk, smiling as police made effort to pry story from his unwilling lips.

Boston Evening American Photo

Shop Mornings

ONLY 6 SHOPPING DAYS

TO CHRISTMAS

Find the Missing Parts of These Ads:

ADVERTISING—and with a pair of great tickets to see Walter

Wagner's Musical Comedy,

"The Merry Men," with all star cast, and "Thoroughbred" aboard the liner Europa after a one-day stop-off in New York during which she completed the renovation formalities in federal court here.

After her action was formally

Charles Town Race Results

DAILY DOUBLE—Day Lane, 2nd; Miss Adeline, 3rd—PAY OFF $221.20

FOURTH RACE—Purse $100; allowance; two-year-olds. Six and one-half furlongs.

1—Moth Wing

2—Royal Business

3—Noble Sea

4—Scout Allow

5—Royal Business

6—Setmap

(All others scratched)

First 6 Second 8 Third 2

G. E. Workers Get $1,050,000

Schenectady, N. Y., Dec. 17 (AP)—

The General Electric Co. announced today that $1,050,000 will be distributed to 18,372 employees in its Schenectady plant, under the firm's profit-sharing plan.

The payment, largest since the plant went into effect in April, 1934, represents the workers' share in profits for the last six months of the year, the announcement said.

At the end of the first six months of the year, $600,000 in profits was distributed to 15,300 employees, the company declared.

BALANCES AND RECEIPTS

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17.

Treasury balance $1,050,000,000

U. S. Customs receipts $12,616,610

Queen Mary Weeps At Vets' Xmas Party

LONDON, Dec. 17 (AP)—Queen's

Mother Mary wept today as she looked on at the Christmas party in the riding school at Buckingham Palace. Some of the veterans huddled on crutches, ex-soldiers being entertained at

Others lay in invalid chairs.

Trace Skeleton By Gold Watch

A thin gold watch, found near a hedgeless skeleton on lonely Walden mountain, near St. Johnsbury, Vt., more than a week ago, today led to the tentative identification of the remains as those of a former

Massachusetts poultry dealer.

Two Massachusetts jewelers notificated Vermont authorities that the timepiece belonged to Fred J.

LeBaron, of Essex street, St. Johnsbury, who disappeared in 1925.

State's Attorney H. Stanwood

Brooks of St. Johnsbury said the watch had been traced through cleaning and repair numbers.

Honorable E. Bellows, St. Johnsbury justice who received one of the cards said sent by police in an effort

Continued on Page 16, Column 1

Link Breen and Preston Race Chart Death Cue

His 'Number Up' Here

Silent Killer Shoots Gambler, Flees In Auto; Police Hold 2 Men

Continued from First Page

stood six feet in his socks and weighed 220 pounds. Indiscriminately he "beat up" mob gorillas, gunmen and policemen.

David J. Breen was his right name but Boston knew him as "Beano"—the one man leader who never carried a gun and who many times challenged a gun with his fists and feet. Because of that many persons of prominence had a certain respect for him and some were his friends.

He was arrested 25 times in his hard-living career and he never served a day behind bars. He handled thousands and thousands of racket dollars and he died with a lead slug in an artery of his throat and 25 cents in his pocket. No more, no less.

He was in and out of labor racket for two decades, head of a mob of men only slightly tougher than himself who were paid big money as strike-breakers or as trouble makers for strike-breakers. More often the latter, but it didn't really matter.

During prohibition he built up an underworld reputation as a speakeasy proprietor—bater of police and of a police commissioner.

And he ran gambling, from horse pool rooms, card games and dice games in his big day as an operator of joints, he had excellent protection.

He had, also, another side—his private family life that he never permitted to come into contact with his racketeering. His widow is a fine woman. He had a son to whom he gave a college education and who is now in Hollywood in movies.

In the hunt for his slayer and for the motive of the killing, investigators had to sift through every racket of which he "had a piece" at one time or another, and almost every racket in existence was in that group.

Police Commissioner Timilty turned to the labor racket. Breen was most active in that recently. But investigation was also under way on the Gesta, murder link.

After hours of questioning of the 17 at first believed to have been witnesses, police held only two for further investigation.

One was a Dorchester man said to have driven Breen to the Metropolitan Hotel from a Back Bay address where he had attended a bachelor dinner.

The other man, said Breen was "in good spirits." Circumstances of the dinner were investigated, ruled out as having any connection with the murder.

The other man held in part, owner of a South End club. He was said to have been in the lobby at the time of the shooting. He lives in another hotel.

Of both, Commissioner Timilty said:

"Both men will be held after questioning and booked as suspicious persons. They have been placed at the scene."

Under investigation was a recent fight between Breen and several other men in a South End club. Breen was caught and received the worst of it.

Another line of inquiry led into Framingham, where Breen allegedly owned a "piece" of a big dice game.

Breen did observing the underworld's silly code of silence. He was able to answer questions, but would not.

"It was all labor trouble over labor racketeering," Commissioner Timilty declared several hours after the killing.

"LABOR RACKETEERS ONLY"

"The killing was due to either labor people against whom Breen had run strike-breakers or other labor racketeers."

"There is positively no connection between this and the Gesta killing," he stated flatly.

"The Gesta killing was due solely to gambling."

According to Commissioner Timilty, Breen "was known to have sold out his gambling interests a year and a half ago."

Commissioner Timilty, after placing together the stories of witnesses, gave the following version of the killing.

"The man who shot Breen was about 35 years old, a swarthy man. He was about five feet 11 inches tall and had a large nose. He wore a dark coat, gray hat and dark glasses."

"This man walked into the Metropolitan Hotel from the Broadway entrance with his hands in his pockets."

"Breen was standing in the lobby talking with two men known to police."

"The killer approached within a few feet of Breen and without a word of warning pulled out a gun and fired five shots, four of which went wild.

Rushing toward his victim, in this side of the lobby at the Metropolitan Hotel, a "short, dark gunman, wearing smoked glasses," fired the fusillade of pistol shots, the fifth shot fatally wounding David J. "Beano" Breen, racket man since even before the days of prohibition. It was in this lobby that "Beano" number came up. The picture was made as detectives gathered where the racketeer fell.

"Breen had been no place in the hotel but the lobby. He walked into the lobby from the Tremont street entrance 15 minutes before he was killed."

"The whole time he was talking to those two men."

"After he was shot he staggered back out the Tremont street entrance, fell into a cab and ordered the driver to take him to City Hospital."

"The killer walked back into the Broadway entrance where a cab was waiting with two men known to Breen."

"The car was apparently headed toward the Remor square early in the evening."

"He had only 25 cents in his pocket."

"There was no robbery," the commissioner emphatically declared.

"The commissioner also declared that Breen 'had no gun, and it was known he never carried a gun.'"

"Explaining further what police believe was the motive for the killing, Commissioner Timilty said:

"Gambling, number pool, horse racing or anything like that had nothing to do with it. It was all labor trouble mixed in with labor racketeering."

"Not only did Breen sell out his gambling interests but a month ago even sold his stake in the Kerry Village cafe on Tremont street."

Timilty said that Breen was the owner of a firm known as "Universal Enterprises" on Tremont street, which, according to the commissioner, was investigated by police of the Warren avenue station two or three weeks ago."

Commissioner Timilty revealed that, according to what information he had received, the function of "Universal Enterprises" was to provide strikebreakers, guards and "strong arm" men.

"BEANO" BREEN

"This 'enterprise' of Breen, according to the police commissioner, was believed to have been recently involved in a recent dye house strike in Haver and a bus strike."

What possible connection Breen might have had with these two strikes are being investigated, Commissioner Timilty declared.

"Police Captain Thomas Connolly of the Warren avenue station in his investigation of Universal Enterprises" was unable to find any evidence of actual lawbreaking."

He also revealed that Captain Connolly's investigation disclosed that "Universal Enterprises" provided fight and other sports pictures to theaters in New York."

Soon after the shooting police detectives went to Breen's two-room offices of "Universal Enterprises" and seized all the records from a six-drawer filing cabinet and glass-top desk.

Police took fingerprints on the desk and in other parts of the room. They said the imprint of a woman's hand appeared on the top of the desk.

The office was comfortably furnished with three leather chairs, several wooden ones, table and two book cases. On the walls were portraits of Presidents Theodore Roosevelt, Abraham Lincoln, Calvin Coolidge and Franklin D. Roosevelt.

On a table were two bundles of suspended laundry addressed, "Mr. Breen, 12 Melrose street." The address was his South End home.

IN OFFICE YESTERDAY

A pay station telephone was on the wall of one room while a dial telephone was also found in the other. Near the "nickel" phone on the wall was a blank pad of paper.

On the wall near this telephone was printed the word, in pencil: "GONE."

Police said there was evidence that Breen had been in the office yesterday and had undoubtedly expected to return today.

In what they termed was apparently his private office, an oil heater was still going. A Boston newspaper, dated yesterday, was on the desk.

A box containing a new lock and key was also found in the room. When police of the Warren avenue station found it, Breen's office they thought the filing cabinet had been rifled, unaware that detectives had been there earlier.

Police even turned to a rival Boston gang who had clashed with Breen's former South End gambling interests since the late days of prohibition in their efforts for a solution.

Despite Commissioner Timilty's assertion that Breen had apparently severed his gambling at the time it was known in the underworld that he "had his finger in many a gambling pie," powerful Boston gang, who, for years, on occasion had clashed with both Breen and Preston.

The rival interests came into being during the days of prohibition and had continued throughout the lucrative life of general salooning.

OLD-TIME REVOLVER

All five shells in an old-type long-barreled 22 calibre revolver were fired in the attack. Police found four of the bullets in the body and, after a survey, said the murder had been carefully mapped.

Bullets found were sub-sonic each had been roughed and cut with a jester X to act in the manner of dum dum bullets.

Police alarms were sounded by William Beaumont, hotel clerk who with a bellboy, Ralph Wilson, ran to Breen's aid when he fell in the center of the lobby.

Breen had attended a bachelor party for a friend, and it was said that earlier in the evening he had had at least $1000 with him.

During recent weeks Breen had been well supplied with money, despite the fact that horse betting rooms and gambling were under tight clamp by police.

One large source of money was through sale of his South End tavern.

When the shooting took place, police officers were not far from the scene.

For a week, special officers had been assigned to the district to watch all night, upon following reports by alcohol beverage inspectors that certain night clubs again were violating the law.

It was one of these officers who had looked in the hotel lobby about an hour before Breen arrived. He told superior officers he saw two well-known gamblers who turned their backs on him and walked out.

Friends said Breen had feared an attack, for weeks. It was learned that he had been wearing a bullet proof vest as late as a week ago and that a bodyguard accompanied him at all times.

He neither wore the vest or had his bodyguard with him when he was shot at the hotel shortly after midnight.

While some sources scoffed at the claim that Breen was a flunk-up of the Gesta murder, others well informed in night life and gambling said Breen always had been friendly with Preston.

It was learned by the Boston Evening American that when a gambling spot, owned by Preston, was raided by state police a year ago, Breen was the headman providing bail of about $5000 in cash for most of the 300 persons arrested.

It also pointed out that Gesta had been closely linked with another powerful Boston gang, who, for years, on occasion had clashed with both Breen and Preston.

Timilty Lays Gambler's Murder to War Over Labor Racket Here

The rival interests came into being during the days of prohibition and had continued throughout the lucrative life of general salooning.

FIGURE IN 2 SHOOTINGS

Breen's name, police recalled, figured in the last two major shootings in the South End.

The latest, which resulted in his own death, was preceded by the killing of Joseph P. "Red" Sweeney, in Breen's Cosmos Club in February, 1935.

At that time Breen was arrested on an accusation after the fact of murder, but was quickly released.

The scene is 100 yards from the hotel where today's murder took place.

While Deputy Superintendent James Claffin supervised questioning of the many witnesses, Commissioner Timilty and Deputy Superintendent William Livingston called for records of the Sweeney killing.

Later Commissioner Timilty declared:

"There is a certain similarity in Breen's wound to the wounds that killed 'Red' Sweeney."

He refused to discuss further what connection Breen's murder might have with the earlier killing.

ASKS FOR PRIEST

Breen, once at the hospital, seemed he had not long to live. Shortly after his arrival, he asked to see a priest and just before being wheeled to the operating room was given the last rites of the Roman Church.

On his finger, he wore a valuable $1000 ring and in his pocket were four business papers. But the large amount of money which he always carried was missing.

A few minutes after Breen had been admitted to the hospital State Senator Joseph Langone, a close personal friend of Breen, arrived at the hospital.

He immediately telephoned to Mrs. Madeline Breen, wife of the slain gambling king in New York and informed her of the shooting.

She expressed a desire to charter an airplane and fly to her husband's bedside but Senator Langone informed her there was no hope of saving Breen's life and advised her to come here by train today.

powerful Boston gang, who, for years, on occasion had clashed with both Breen and Preston.

The rival interests came into being during the days of prohibition and had continued throughout the lucrative life of general salooning.

FIGURE IN 2 SHOOTINGS

Breen's name, police recalled, figured in the last two major shootings in the South End.

The latest, which resulted in his own death, was preceded by the killing of Joseph P. "Red" Sweeney, in Breen's Cosmos Club in February, 1935.

At that time Breen was arrested on an accusation after the fact of murder, but was quickly released.

The scene is 100 yards from the hotel where today's murder took place.

While Deputy Superintendent James Claffin supervised questioning of the many witnesses, Commissioner Timilty and Deputy Superintendent William Livingston called for records of the Sweeney killing.

Later Commissioner Timilty declared:

"There is a certain similarity in Breen's wound to the wounds that killed 'Red' Sweeney."

He refused to discuss further what connection Breen's murder might have with the earlier killing.

ASKS FOR PRIEST

Breen, once at the hospital, seemed he had not long to live. Shortly after his arrival, he asked to see a priest and just before being wheeled to the operating room was given the last rites of the Roman Church.

On his finger, he wore a valuable $1000 ring and in his pocket were four business papers. But the large amount of money which he always carried was missing.

A few minutes after Breen had been admitted to the hospital State Senator Joseph Langone, a close personal friend of Breen, arrived at the hospital.

He immediately telephoned to Mrs. Madeline Breen, wife of the slain gambling king in New York and informed her of the shooting.

She expressed a desire to charter an airplane and fly to her husband's bedside but Senator Langone informed her there was no hope of saving Breen's life and advised her to come here by train today.

GEN. HUGH JOHNSON'S Column will be found on Page 8 today.

R. H. WHITE CO.

THE TALE OF THE WHITE SHIRT

EPISODE ONE

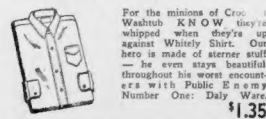

"Do Your Worst!" OUR HEROCRIES

And that's just what Croolhart Washbut proceeds to do. Into the merciless Beat-em-up Washer our Dauntless hero is hurled. Great dices pummed him ceaselessly. The "Bath of Steaming Torture" is applied.

And All In Vain!

Dauntless Whitley Shirt scoffs at hard knocks. Washers that have covered and many an innocent Shirt whither in defeat when our hero's name is whispered. Strong Mangles shudder and testing machines remember previous engagements when Dauntless Whitley swaggers into view.

MEM'S FURNISHINGS WHITE STREET FLOOR

Police Comb 'Beano' Offices

Headquarters police went to the office of David J. "Beano" Breen, 358 Tremont street, to seek clues that would lead them to enemies of the murdered gambling "king." They looked over every letter and paper in the desk. Left to right are Special Officers James E. Wightman, John J. Sullivan, Sergeant Daniel Fitzpatrick and Detective George J. Harden.

HOVEY'S LIMITED QUANTITY

A Sensational Purchase—

Brand New 1938 AC-DC

Westinghouse RADIOS

Exactly 1/2 Price

$34.95

$34

List Price $69.95

- 7 Tube 3 Band Set
- 14-In. Dynamic Speaker
- Beautiful Console Cabinet
- Automatic Volume Control
- Foreign and Short Wave Reception
- Remember New 1938 Model

$4 Down

Balance in small monthly payments

RADIO DEPT.—4TH FLOOR

Breen Arrested 35 Times, Not In Jail a Day

Gambler Had Faculty Of Always Escaping His Penalty

The assassin's bullet that smashed into the face of David J. "Beano" Breen, South End "gambler king" early today, ended a police record of 35 arrests, going back 27 years to 1910.

Despite these numerous arrests, however, the record shows Breen never spent even one day behind the bars.

His record, on file at police headquarters, is as follows:

July 2, 1910—Assault and battery in two counts; fined $50 in each.

Oct. 10, 1910—Malicious mischief, not proved.

March 23, 1911—Assault and battery; fined $50.

March 23, 1911—Suspicious person at Dover, N. H.; ordered to leave Dover.

May 19, 1911—Profanity; fined $5.

Aug. 21, 1912—Robbery; placed on file in Suffolk Superior.

Nov. 1, 1912—Assault and battery; fined $50 in Suffolk Superior.

April 18, 1913—Attempting to bribe witness, on file.

April 18, 1913—Assault and battery on police officer; fined $10.

March 3, 1914—Assault and battery on police officer; dismissed.

June 1, 1914—Throwing glass in street; on file.

July 19, 1914—Suspicious person in Buffalo, N. Y.; ordered out of city.

Dec. 18, 1914—Robbery; dismissed in Chelsea court.

Dec. 18, 1914—Assault and battery; continued in Chelsea court.

Jan. 12, 1915—Drunk; released on probation.

Sept. 14, 1917—Robbery; discharged.

Sept. 14, 1917—Drunk; fined.

June 19, 1918—Drunk; released on probation.

Oct. 17, 1918—Obscene language; fined $10.

Nov. 2, 1918—Being present where gaming implements found; fined $5.

May 11, 1920—Assault and battery on police officer; fined.

May 11, 1920—Profanity; fined.

June 8, 1920—Violation of true name law; fined $10.

July 29, 1920—Aid in Montreal for investigation; turned over to immigration office.

Dec. 4, 1920—Drunk; fined $5.

July 26, 1926—Violation liquor law; fined $50.

Feb. 2, 1927—Profanity; fined $5.

March 21, 1928—Violation prohibition act; fined $500.

June 19, 1927—Violation liquor law; fined $500.

March 11, 1931—Conducting liquor nuisance; fined $100 and six months' sentence; appealed.

June 4, 1931—Assault and battery; fined $25 and paid.

Feb. 8, 1932—Accessory after the fact of murder; warrant returned in court.

AUSTEN LAKE, Mass.'s fore most sports writer and columnist, every day in the Boston American.

5 Blondes Heal Beano Death Shots

'I WOULDN'T KNOW HIM'

Police Grill Girls 6 Hours in Vain

'I DID NOT SEE KILLER'

Five statuesque, blond showgirls... in the "goldfish" room at Warren Avenue police station...

"What do YOU know about the shooting of Beano Breen?" "Honest, officer! honest!—we don't know ANYTHING!"

"What were you doing in the lobby? You were there, weren't you? What were you doing there? Come on, now!—answer up!"

"I tell you, we were in the restaurant next door having a cup of coffee."

"Who was with you? What were you there at that hour for? Did you see this fellow—the fellow that did the shooting?"

HEARD FATAL SHOTS

"No, No! Ain't we told you 'No' a dozen times? We were having a cup of coffee, that's all, and we heard the shot."

"How many shots? How'd you know they were shots? How do you know what shots sound like? Ever been mixed up in a shooting before?"

"Look, Mister Officer, they were shots—? I don't know how we knew they were shots. I guess we heard people yelling. So we jumped up from the table where we were sitting, and we ran in—"

"What the fellow that did the shooting look like? Come on—quick, now!"

"Lord! haven't we told you about a million times already we didn't see the one that did it! Look—all we did see, we were having a cup of coffee, and we heard the shot, and we ran in—and then the police came and grabbed us—and that's ALL we know."

For six hours early today, that went on—five statuesque, blonde showgirls, two of them from a local burlesque show.

They were questioned by everyone from Police Commissioner Tully on down.

And finally, they were let go, completely exonerated of any complicity in the situation and completely exonerated by their ordeal.

CRUEL OF CROSBY

The police said they were satisfied the girls knew nothing about the shooting—their stories were true—that they were merely innocent bystanders.

What the girls said as they went out their ways home—won't bear repeating—except that, from now on, the City Hall can be seen up right across the corner, and they'll turn around and walk home.

No more "womanly curiosity" for them.

Helen Johnson, a stage dancer, was one of the score of persons found near the scene of the killing of "Beano" Breen, in the lobby of the Metropolitan Hotel. She was taken to station 4, but was later released. Police took everybody in sight in hopes that something would be gleaned to aid their killer hunt.

Raid by Hultman Found Sundae Fans in 'Beano's'

Many and varied are the stories they tell about "Beano" Breen, leader of the old Castle Square gang...

"Beano" a fine broth of a boy was a boxer of note. He had been in 29 professional fights, won 18 out the 19th. In the 20th Harry Fudick broke "Beano's" jaw. Ed Sullivan and "Beano" were lifelong friends.

"Beano" was shot three times the day last night's fatal shooting.

first time was back in 1911, when the Castle Square gang invaded Cherry Valley. The second time was in 1920, the gang playfully had dropped a champagne off a roof top onto—Mr. Polhemus Harry E. Elliot.

Elliot escaped being struck by the descending champagne by a hair's breadth. "In the yuckus" that followed, "Beano" stepped in front of John "Honey" Sullivan, trying to protect him from police bullets.

"Beano" was wounded, but recovered, Sullivan died.

The third shooting was in Montreal. Four men held up a Monty, "Beano" who never carried a gun, ended in, fists flying.

But not before one of them had put a bullet into him. From then on, said Montreal police in a big cleanup advised him to return to the United States. "Beano" was a "big shot" in Montreal gambling circles.

"Beano" greatest claim to fame was the historic claim, the night before the 4th of July, 1933, when Police Commissioner Eugene C. Hultman in person raided his speakeasy, the old "Nephtus A. A. on Tremont street."

For months, "Beano" had been running wide open, defying the police, barricading his doors against them, successfully "tipped off" to every raid. This night, Commissioner Hultman and his raiders, headed for home, started, he crashed through the doors and—

Found fifteen customers lined up at the bar sipping iced high port of chocolate fudge covered with the cream!

"Beano" kept his speakeasy open from the day it first opened, his doors straight through to the day prohibition was repealed. He did this in spite of uncountable raids. In one sixty-day period alone "Beano's" speakeasy was raided sixty times.

If got to "Beano" maintained his doors open the whole time when they saw the police coming.

"New doors all the time cost too much," "Beano" explained.

"Beano's" speakeasy made him an estimated $200,000. He bought real estate, and owned a drugstore with 100 yards of police headquarters. He owned a lovely summer place, a farm at Lake Winnepesaukee, N. H.

Yet, now that he is dead, it is said he had nothing left except the farm and the property on Merrose street, where he lived.

"Beano" Breen was "the softest touch" in town. If Boston's gang handlers are to be believed, "Beano" was always ready with a dime bag of a "c-note" for a friend in need.

Shortly after "Beano" returned from Montreal and opened his speakeasy, three of Boston's Capone-type gangsters announced they were mauling him.

So "Beano" said "Beano" and the trio was unmercifully beaten, loaded into an automobile and taken to Warren Bridge, Charlestown.

There only the soberest couple of his companions prevented "Beano" from throwing the three "muscle men" over the bridge rail into the water.

P. S.—They let "Beano" alone after that.

"Beano" was a "cop-fighter" was constantly fighting policemen, sometimes because they tried to arrest him, sometimes for the sheer fun of it.

There are at least three women, members of the Boston police force, who "Beano" kept up who never let him down.

Pat Cunningham, also a dancer, was questioned, too. She was attracted to the scene by the reports of five shots fired in killing of Breen. When Miss Cunningham went through a long series of questions police were sure that she could not help their cause. She was sent home.

By the Central Labor Union and many local groups.

Plan New Bus Line

FALL RIVER, Dec. 17.—The Chamber of Commerce today completed plans for a Fall River to Boston express bus service, backed by the city.

When officers were met for all the speakeasies in Boston to close down, "Beano" continued in run wide open. One day Captain Calvin appeared with his squad and asked:

"Why don't you close up, Beano?"

"You tell me to and I will," was "Beano's" reply, "but the people in the white building at Berkeley street will never close me."

During the Hultman regime when officers were met for all the speakeasies in Boston to close down, "Beano" continued in run wide open. One day Captain Calvin appeared with his squad and asked:

"Why don't you close up, Beano?"

"You tell me to and I will," was "Beano's" reply, "but the people in the white building at Berkeley street will never close me."

During the Hultman regime when officers were met for all the speakeasies in Boston to close down, "Beano" continued in run wide open. One day Captain Calvin appeared with his squad and asked:

"Why don't you close up, Beano?"

"You tell me to and I will," was "Beano's" reply, "but the people in the white building at Berkeley street will never close me."

During the Hultman regime when officers were met for all the speakeasies in Boston to close down, "Beano" continued in run wide open. One day Captain Calvin appeared with his squad and asked:

"Why don't you close up, Beano?"

Beano 'Tough Guy' of Old So. End Gang

Scorned Gun, Used His Fists; Hated 'Cops'; Defied 'Mobs'

David J. "Beano" Breen, known throughout the city as one of the really "good guys" in racketeering, was a product of the old Castle square gang of the South End.

He first gained fame as "the tough kid" of old Kerry Village, the section where he gained notoriety during the turbulent days of prohibition, and the place where he died.

In the last decade, Breen had risen to a high position in the sporting world as operator of horse rooms, night club, legal liquor establishments and fight manager.

But during the days of prohibition, he was Boston's best known "cop buster."

Always he had been known as a man who used his fists and shunned the guns of modern racketeering.

Twice he was a victim of bullets before these which ended his life early this morning.

Columns of newspaper space were devoted to Breen's prohibition exploits as owner of the famed "Nephtus A. A. on Tremont street, South End. Between January 1930 and the following July police raided "Beano's" speakeasy without once proving a violation of the law or seizing any liquor.

Miss in 1920, Breen was shot in the ankle by Patrolman Henry C. Elliot during a street fight in Arlington square, in which a companion, "Irish" Sullivan, was shot and killed.

He then spent several years in Montreal, where he was known as one of that city's toughest gamblers. His Montreal sojourn came to an end when police completed a successful drive to clean up the old Castle square gang.

It was in Montreal that he figured in a second shooting, saving the life of the former light-weight boxing champion, Abe Attell. Witnesses said that Breen leaped on a man about to shoot Attell. Again he was shot in the leg, but quickly recovered.

"Cops," he usually considered his enemies in the days of prohibition and he was not afraid to mix with any of them. He helped Sergeant Francis Tierney with a single punch in Suffolk courthouse after the latter had testified on liquor violations at Breen's club. He was taken right back into the courtroom but escaped with a $25 fine.

When Breen was in the money, his friends always were taken care of. The last time Breen figured prominently in the news was when Joseph P. "Red" Sweezy, ex-convict and gangster, was shot to death in Breen's Casino Club on Broadway, South End.

He was charged with being accessory after the fact of murder but was released when arraigned in court.

It was during these eight years that "Beano" won the liking of so many people who, therefore, he had been just a troublemaker, a speakeasy owner and a petty racketeer.

In spite of all the money he spent, however, his mother died, about three years ago.

Beano's Kindness To Mother Won Him Friends

Slain Racketeer Had Wed 3; His Son of 19 Is An Actor

How he came by his nickname, "Beano," nobody remembers. It was a childhood name. It did not refer to the so-called "beano racket."

David J. "Beano" Breen was good to his mother, now dead. That fact liked him out of the crowd of petty racketeers, won him friendship in high circles, made him at least "respectable" in the regard of certain powers that be.

"Beano" was born Aug. 26, 1902—44 years ago—in Warren street, Boston, less than 150 feet away from where he was fatally shot early today.

His mother, Bridget, was a "third" soul. Above all, she loved her boy. There was one other child in the family, a sister. She became Mrs. Louis Cohen. She died several years ago.

His mother himself was married three times.

He had a son of his first wife—who later divorced him. The boy, 19, now is in the movies. He had a minor part in "Penguin Parade."

"Beano's" first wife—his boy's mother—was the former, Cassarine M. Walsh. She and Breen married her May 19, 1915.

MOTHER AIDED HIM

"Beano's" second wife was a girl he married in Montreal. He had gone there some time after the now-historic Boston police strike, in connection with which he had his share of trouble.

His second wife died, and he married the woman now his widow about five years ago.

Throughout his life "Beano" was constantly in trouble—fighting, disorderly conduct, mostly. But he had his mother, always, stout his mother: Bridget.

By 1926 "Beano" had returned to Boston and was making money of his own. No longer was his mother's money—indeed, there may have been little of it left.

It was at this time that his mother became seriously ill. As his mother had spent thousands of dollars to keep him out of the hands of the law, so, then, "Beano" spent thousands to keep her out of the hands of Death.

For eight years he had her in his home and the finest hospitals in the United States, nurses constantly in attendance, the best doctors, the highest priced specialists.

It was during these eight years that "Beano" won the liking of so many people who, therefore, he had been just a troublemaker, a speakeasy owner and a petty racketeer.

In spite of all the money he spent, however, his mother died, about three years ago.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY

Both home bodies and gadabouts adore these colorful

House Coats

Photographic prints in cotton sateen house coats!

$2.25

Realistic prints done with bold strokes on black, old blue or wine grounds. Fine quality cotton sateen with 30-inch slide-fastener and a wide flare at the hem. Sketched A. Sizes 14 to 20.

House Coats in gay Flowered Percale!

$1.69

One, from many, sketched B. Have it in navy, black, orchid or brown flowered prints. Note the talon fastener and the youthful puffed sleeves, typical of the smartly detailed styles in this group. Sizes 16 to 44.

Christmas Sale

We Bought These Last January to Get This Price—

$7.50 Flannel Robes $5.95

The style sketched and white piped shawl collar models. The maker—America's most famous one—signed a bond last January entitling us to 400 of these robes. We insisted on raising the quantity to 1000—and we were lucky to get them. You're lucky, too—for it means a genuine $7.50, beautifully tailored, all wool flannel robe at a real saving. Compare!

Other Robes $7.95 to $20

Leopold Morsetto 45 Summer St. Adams Square Harvard Sq.

JORDAN MARSH COMPANY GREAT BASEMENT STORE

TUESDAY (DEC. 21st) Last Day to have your Christmas Photograph Taken!

GIFT SPECIAL Lovely 8x10 size best finished photographs. Artistically mounted. No appointment necessary. 6 for $4.95

ONE 11x14 PHOTOGRAPH FOR ONLY $1

BASEMENT, 870 OLD YEAR CHILDREN'S DEPARTMENT

WASH PROCKS FOURTH FLOOR—MAIN STORE

Mail or phone orders filled. Call HUBBARD 2700 until 10 P. M.

It's in the bag

The Climax of our Christmas Spree

Pick from a brand new lot of double-woven Cameron Worsteds Suits
—and pay only

$25

Including two trousers

It's high time somebody did something for the many men who want new clothes for the holidays. We don't see why they should always have to put-up with the season's left-overs. That's why we planned this "Christmas Spree"! It brings you an entirely new, and very complete selection of distinguished Cameron Worsteds—featuring a world of double-woven oxford greys, keen-looking check-weaves, and the popular new varsity plaids. * And to complete the job, we've added a timely dash of price appeal. All of these Camerons are today's accepted $32.50 quality. Our "Christmas Spree" price is $25 (including 2 trousers) * Make a date to make merry—and save money—at Bond's Christmas Spree. It ends Tuesday night!

A Bond Gift Certificate is always a safe bet for both the giver and the getter.

BOND CLOTHES
Corner Washington and Essex

Open Daily 9 to 6—Saturday 9 to 9
Open Xmas Week — Every Night Until 9

"Charge it"
the popular
Bond way

It's the convenient way to buy good clothes. You may pay either weekly or twice a month. And there's no extra charge for this service.

Panay Survivors Arrive in Shanghai

U. S. Cameraman Reveals Attacks
Before Japs Sunk Gunboat

SHANGHAI, Dec. 17 (AP)—With flags fluttering at half mast, the little United States gunboat Oahu arrived at Shanghai tonight bearing the dead, wounded and rescued survivors of her sister ship, Panay.

Two Japanese destroyers, the Otori and Kanagawa, and the British gunboat Ladybird conveyed the United States vessel as she steamed alongside the flagship Augusta, ending her 20-mile trip down the Yangtze.

On board were the bodies of Sturges, Charles L. Eslinger, the Panay's captain, and the Chinese quartermaster of one of the three oil company craft destroyed in the Japanese attack Sunday.

15 WOUNDED ABOARD

The Oahu also carried some 60 survivors, 15 of them wounded.

The United States government's concern over belated information that Japanese boats had machine-gunned the Panay before she went down with her flags flying, was emphasized when a naval court inquiry boarded the Oahu down the Whangpoo at Yangtze.

Lieutenant Charles J. Whiting was judge advocate of the court assigned to piece together the stories of the Panay's survivors. Other members were: Captain Harold V. McKittick, Commander Abel C. Sabatell, Commander Morton L. Ivry.

Most of the Panay's officers and crew were transferred to the Augusta, which was scheduled to sail for Manila Monday at midnight. The Augusta was to carry Eslinger's body for burial in the United States. Bodies of the other three victims were claimed by friends and relatives.

United States consular officials arranged immediate transfer of civilian wounded to Shanghai hospitals. Navy surgeons began the service soon.

Norman Alley, Universal News-reel photographer from Hollywood, Calif., disclosed that the Panay was bombed before leaving Nanking, and was shelled again after before the air bombardment which sent her to the bottom.

"After the air bombing, a Japanese military detachment from positions along the shore machine-gunned the Panay for several minutes, then sent a torpedo boat which stayed five minutes before Panay sank, Alley said.

"Their action caused panic among survivors, who feared the Japanese would turn machine-guns on them next."

"Three Japanese bombers dropped the first bombs from a great height. We thought it was a mistake until six Japanese pursuit planes appeared and began power-diving, dropping bombs and machine-gunning us."

"Captain Hughes (Lieut. Commander James Hughes, commander of the Panay), was blown off the bridge and his leg broken by one bomb."

"The Panay's gun crews stuck to their guns until the last civilian ship. When ordered to abandon ship, the gun crews jumped overboard and swam ashore. I remained aboard cranking a camera until the last boat, shoved off."

Naval officers from the Augusta this morning took a statement from Jim Marshall, Far Eastern writer for Collier's Magazine, at the hospital where he is being treated for wounds incurred in the Panay bombing.

His statement will be used for the official inquiry.

BLANTS WRECKED GUNS

Lieutenant J. W. Gutz, engineer officer from Altoona, Pa., told the Associated Press the Panay was anchored at noon Sunday 25 miles above Nanking. After launch boats were launched, planes were heard overhead.

"Without warning, someone called 'they are dropping bombs,'" Gutz said. "Three heavy bombs flying at about 700 feet came over and landed explosives. One hit the bridge, destroyed the bridge. Another bomb hit close to the ship, pushing in walls of the craft and allowing water to pour in. Quickly the water was knee deep."

"We were all stunned by the initial blast. The concussion was so great it bent the shields on some guns and rendered them unfit for action."

"After the three big bombs went over, six small planes came and power dived, bombing as well as machine-gunning us. Their hand grenades were the heaviest armament of the Panay."

Survivors of the bombing had the highest praise for the gunboats' machine gunners, including Alex Kouss of Anconia, Conn., and Maurice David Rider, Southampton, Mass.

"These gunners kept firing until the Panay sank," Chief Boatwain's Mate Ernest Mahlmann of Astoria, Long Island, was taking a bath when the ship was attacked. He dashed to the boat deck naked and, after drenching the Panay's gunfire, manned a gun himself. Later he made every trip with the motor launch taking wounded survivors ashore.

Colin Malcolm McDonald, correspondent for the London Times, told of seeing sailors stripped to the waist, some of them bleeding from wounds, grimly firing machine-guns at the attacking planes.

"When the planes came roaring back, I dived into the chief petty officers' mess on the boat deck," McDonald said. "The civilians took shelter there, including Nankai, who was crushed near the door."

Sabatell suddenly clapped his hands to his stomach and cried out "I die."

"I saw immediately he was gravely wounded and found he had been hit in the stomach with two machine gun bullets. Sabatell died, after nearly 14 hours of

Japan Official Denies Panay Also Gunned

All the Charges From Eyewitnesses Are Termed False

TOKYO, Dec. 17 (UPI)—Official Japanese reports to Washington today denied the Panay and three merchant ships were machine-gunned, as well as bombed, were categorized today by an official spokesman.

The spokesman denied all charges, made by eyewitnesses of the attack, that Japanese soldiers aboard two launches swept the gunboat with machine-gun fire while it was sinking after being struck by aerial bombs.

In addition, the spokesman told questioners that the Japanese government had not yet decided whether or not additional replies will be dispatched to Washington and London in response to stiff protests against attacks on American and British vessels in China.

DRAFTING NOTES

From other sources, however, it was learned that the Japanese government is drafting replies to both Britain and the United States, and that the note to America is expected to be handed to United States Ambassador Joseph C. Grew tomorrow.

The spokesman contended that Japan's first note of apology for the Panay attack "might be deemed satisfactory." He declared the Japanese government, as yet, had no complete information regarding the Panay incident, and that a full investigation must be completed before Japan takes further action.

He stated that the actions of the officers concerned in the attack were being investigated.

Regarding Rear Admiral Tetsu Matsuami, Japan's chief of aerial operations, the spokesman said as officer responsible for the Panay attack was announced yesterday by the navy ministry, the spokesman professed virtually no knowledge.

He denied himself unable to confirm that Matsuami had actually been recalled, and added that it is still not clear whether the post is being taken for purposes of punishment or otherwise.

POSTPONE CONFERENCE

Other official sources also said that the Panay attack, which they were awaiting the arrival of General Chiang, was decided to postpone a projected joint conference of government, army, navy and imperial headquarters or officials in which Emperor Hirohito himself might participate—until late next week.

Japs Jailed By Soviets, Says Tokyo

Framed; Then Held
In Secret, Formal
Nippon Charge

TOKYO, Dec. 17 (AP)—The Japanese foreign office today formally charged the Soviet Union with acting in a manner "utterly unthinkable in any civilized country" in connection with arrests of Japanese in Russia.

The foreign office statement to the Russian embassy said, in part: "On November 4 an unknown woman named Daji Takahashi, director of a Japanese company at Vladivostok, an employee of the Russian embassy, was arrested by the Soviet secret police, and was evidently lying in ambush arrested him and took 'the letter,' declaring he would be indicted for 'espionage'."

"Takahashi was placed in detention. His trial has not yet been held. Japanese authorities have been conducting negotiations in order to learn the results of the investigation, and also to inquire as to the conditions of Takahashi's health."

"Soviet officials failed entirely to furnish any information on these points."

The greatest act the Japanese embassy at Moscow had protested several times in order to learn the results of the investigation, and also to inquire as to the conditions of Takahashi's health.

"The Japanese government takes no position as to the possibility of further longer while the national's safety is so impounded," the note went on.

Gifts for Men at Sarnoff Irving

NECKWEAR . . . 55c
GLOVES . . . 1.29
HOSE . . . 25c
SHIRTS . . . 1.29
MUFFLERS . . . 1.00

24-26 Washington Street
1311 Broadway Street
2121 Washington Street, Boston

Store open 'til 9 P.M. every night

Sensational is the word for such tremendous markdowns

Half-price savings on Fur Coats!

Exemplary Values:

GRAY BROADTAIL	$55
Regularly $88
SLEEK KIDSKIN	$75
Regularly $139
FINE RACCOON	$85
Regularly $150
HUDSON SEAL	$125
Regularly $225
BLACK PERSIAN	$148
Regularly $275
JAP MINK	$165
Regularly $319
SOMALI LEOPARD	$185
Regularly $365
ALASKA SEAL	$235
Regularly $450

(Others from $35 up to $1500)

YOU DON'T NEED CASH

Make a small convenient deposit now . . . then pay the balance over a year's time while you enjoy wearing your Crawford fur coat!

ENTIRE 3RD FLOOR
FRONT-DEXTER BLDG. 453 WASHINGTON ST., BOSTON

CRAWFORD'S
Furriers

In Manchester, N. H. at 194 Elm Street

Chief of Panay Says U. S. Shots Hit Attackers

Capt. Hughes Tells of Hiding After His Ship Sunk

DOWLING for the first time that machine gunners of the U. S. S. Panay hit their Japanese aerial attack. "Last night," Lieutenant James J. Hughes, captain of the ship, told a dramatic story of the sinking of his ship. On Captain Hughes' report, which refutes Japanese denial that the Panay was machine-gunned by Japanese launchers, probably will be heard (full article by the American State Department).

By LIEUT. COMDR. J. J. HUGHES
As Told to International News Service (Copyright, 1937)

SHANGHAI, Dec. 17 (U.S.N.S.)—The moment the Japanese airplanes started dropping bombs, I rushed to the bridge and started giving the Panay under way. I hoped that presenting a moving target would give us a chance to escape.

But just as we were getting up headway, one plane made a direct hit with a bomb on the port side. I killed Sandro Sanzetti (Italian), and another man, but I was throwing me against the wheel.

From then on, we were out of action. The Panay's junior officers acted with efficiency and courage in the emergency, especially Lieutenant John W. Geist, who also was injured.

I do not believe there was a rivet on the entire ship that escaped attention of the Japanese. They tore around the ship in flat circles, or panned-down.

My men responded with machine-gun fire, and hit some of the planes. But the shots were not vital. It was like using hose blowers. Only lucky shots could have done any of the six right and three heavy bombs.

The Panay folded up like tissue paper. My men managed to lower boats and get me and other wounded ashore—all the time under machine-gun fire.

We hurried in among the high swamp grass, and then I watched the boats returning, thoughtfully to get provisions and medical supplies from the sinking Panay.

They made away from the ship in the nick of time. Japanese in boats machine-gunned the Panay and boarded her from the starboard side—despite the fact that Old Glory was plainly flying, and was painted on the sides.

Down with colors flying. There I watched my ship go ALL BURNED UP.

We spent all the afternoon hiding out, and as sundown went aboard Standard-Vacuum motorboats, until the British gunboat Bee picked us up.

Meanwhile the attack went through a harrowing trek to Shanghai and back with the wounded and dying.

We were all burned up, natural. In all the time no because earlier a visit from a Japanese launch had made them aware of the identity and position of the Panay.

I am mighty proud of the performance of my officers and men, and I hope the people of America feel the same way.

Shifts Job

MARY LOWELL COOLIDGE
WANTS 'CLOSE CONTACT WITH THE STUDENTS'

MARY LOWELL COOLIDGE, who will return as dean of Wellesley College in June to return to the classroom as a teacher, told a Boston American reporter today that the sole reason for the step is her love of teaching.

"While the impression exists that a dean of women has even more personal contact with the students than does a professor, the reverse is true in a large college today," she said.

"At one time Wellesley College had a resident dean, who was also head of house, but as time went on and the school became more highly organized it was necessary to have several deans."

"We now have a dean of freshmen, who is concerned with new girls and their problems; we have three class deans, one each in the classes of '38, '39 and '40."

NO CLOSE CONTACT
"My position was at the head, where there was much administrative work, committee meetings and detail, and in the schedule of time it was impossible for me to have much close contact with the students."

"I am relinquishing the honor because my work in philosophy was suffering. I continued to teach while I was dean, and since I believe one must be sacrificed, I will keep no classes."

Miss Coolidge has not always enjoyed wide academic work. On being graduated from Bryn Mawr, she taught for a year in a private school.

Teaching small children did not offer enough challenge to her mind, and during the year she gave it up and went into a factory in Waltham, where she rose from an unimportant clerkship to an executive post.

Then she went to Vassar to teach, and has since devoted herself to study and education.

YEAR VACATION
Miss Coolidge will not return to Wellesley next fall, as she will be her birthday year. That is, having served seven years in the college, she is entitled to a year off for travel and study. She is not sure what her plans are just yet.

DOING SLATED
For New City Post
Appointment of John C. T. Dowling as chairman of the executive department is reported to be announced soon after Mayor-elect Martin J. Tully's inauguration January 2.

DOWLING at present principal assistant of Boston, with his named, replaces Edward T. Kelly of Jamaica Plain, who has held the job 19 years and who has been in the city's office 32 years.

Kelly is slated to retire on a pension.

6 Planes Lost in Fire
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17 (U.S.N.S.)—Six planes including the starboard Liberty Bell were destroyed in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

Wellesley Dean Prefers Work As Teacher

MARY LOWELL COOLIDGE
WANTS 'CLOSE CONTACT WITH THE STUDENTS'

MARY LOWELL COOLIDGE, who will return as dean of Wellesley College in June to return to the classroom as a teacher, told a Boston American reporter today that the sole reason for the step is her love of teaching.

"While the impression exists that a dean of women has even more personal contact with the students than does a professor, the reverse is true in a large college today," she said.

"At one time Wellesley College had a resident dean, who was also head of house, but as time went on and the school became more highly organized it was necessary to have several deans."

"We now have a dean of freshmen, who is concerned with new girls and their problems; we have three class deans, one each in the classes of '38, '39 and '40."

NO CLOSE CONTACT
"My position was at the head, where there was much administrative work, committee meetings and detail, and in the schedule of time it was impossible for me to have much close contact with the students."

"I am relinquishing the honor because my work in philosophy was suffering. I continued to teach while I was dean, and since I believe one must be sacrificed, I will keep no classes."

Miss Coolidge has not always enjoyed wide academic work. On being graduated from Bryn Mawr, she taught for a year in a private school.

Teaching small children did not offer enough challenge to her mind, and during the year she gave it up and went into a factory in Waltham, where she rose from an unimportant clerkship to an executive post.

Then she went to Vassar to teach, and has since devoted herself to study and education.

YEAR VACATION
Miss Coolidge will not return to Wellesley next fall, as she will be her birthday year. That is, having served seven years in the college, she is entitled to a year off for travel and study. She is not sure what her plans are just yet.

DOING SLATED
For New City Post
Appointment of John C. T. Dowling as chairman of the executive department is reported to be announced soon after Mayor-elect Martin J. Tully's inauguration January 2.

DOWLING at present principal assistant of Boston, with his named, replaces Edward T. Kelly of Jamaica Plain, who has held the job 19 years and who has been in the city's office 32 years.

Kelly is slated to retire on a pension.

6 Planes Lost in Fire
PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 17 (U.S.N.S.)—Six planes including the starboard Liberty Bell were destroyed in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

As his body hurtled past the first floor of the house, his arm went through a window, arousing in a fire which swept the main hangar of Boulevard airport early today.

Kelly, 70, today plunged to death from the second floor of his home, 4 Morse court, Worcester.

SEARS OPEN EVERY EVENING Until Christmas. Free Parking

Sears feminine Christmas Party
Hostess Coats and Lounging Robes $198 to $698

An excellent Christmas Gift that will be appreciated by the most important lady on your list. The assortment includes Negligees, Rayon Satin and Taffeta Quilt House Coats and Flannels with zippers, or button Trims combining smooth slowness with bathrobe warmth.

HONEY LANE DRESSES $100
Elegant Effects - Princess Styles! Gores - Pleats - Slide Fasteners! Checks - Plaids - Paisleys - Solids. Pocket dress-button-down-the-front styles—bolero effects—everything new and smart is here. Sizes 7-10 and 10-12 years.

Warm Knitted Hat and Scarf Sets 98c
Wool and cotton knit caps, pointed toques. Scarves caps, or warm. Rich, solid colors, or brilliant contrasts on backgrounds of brown, green, red, royal blue, navy or white.

Women's Full Fashioned "Royal Purple" Hose
Full fashioned crepe chiffon that look sheer and wear long. 2 and 5 thread. Run steps and strong reinforcement.

Women's Lace Trimmed or Tailored Silk Crepe Slips
Lacy crepe and pure dye silk slippers—in a wide choice of lace and tailored styles. Run-proof. Sizes 32 to 44.

Pure Linen Hand Rolled Edge
Applied corner with hand rolled edge. Made of pure linen in contrasting colors and patterns. Popular sizes. Very fine quality.

Women's Lined Capeskin Gloves
Rabbit for lined. Fine quality capeskin in black or brown, neatly attached. Sizes 6 to 8.

Lace Trimmed-Embroidered Heavy Satin Chemises
Heavy satin, with big splash of rich lace, perfect touchings and all the expensive touches seldom seen at this price. Size 22-34-36.

Gold and Silver Costume Jewelry
Attractive and colorful ropes of gold beads—strand gold chains—pendants—Victorian lockets—Bee Pink and several other pieces.

DuPont Pyralin 3 Pc. Dresser Set
Striking and beautiful in design. New soft pearl-tone shades of rose, maize and green. Crystal-clear handles.

Women's White Elk Shoe Skates
Soft white elk uppers in smart professional style, highly tempered tubular skates. Shoe has leather outsole and inside with a c h support. Size 4 to 9.

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.
BOSTON: Brookline Ave. at Park Drive FREE PARKING 1815 MASS. AVE.—Near Porter Square Phone KENmore 7370
CAMBRIDGE: 1815 MASS. AVE.—Near Porter Square Phone TROwbridge 4010

SEARS OPEN EVENINGS UNTIL CHRISTMAS

Saturday Last Day

TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE 30%

For Your Old Worn Out Tires

 ALLSTATE TIRES

For a limited time Sears will allow 30% TRADE-IN ALLOWANCE for your old tires, when you buy ALLSTATE. The New ALLSTATE Tire is GUARANTEED to wear 10 full months. There are no exceptions. We will replace it with a brand new tire, charging you only 1-18 of the current price for each month the tire has been in your possession. Included in this offer are Sears regular, Heavy Duty, Famous Traction Grip and Truck Tires.

Size	4-Ply	Price	Sale	You Save
6.50-19		$9.80	$6.86	$2.94
5.50-17		12.90	9.03	3.87
6.00-16		14.40	10.08	4.32
6.50-16		17.70	12.39	5.31

Visit Sears Super Service Station!

OPEN EVENINGS 'TIL CHRISTMAS

SEARS, ROEBUCK AND CO.

BOSTON: PARK DRIVE FREE 1815 MASS. AVE. BROOKLINE AVE. PARKING CAMBRIDGE: NEAR PORTER SQUARE

Also sold at: MALDEN: 810 Main St. QUINCY: 335 Hancock St. WALTHAM: 240 Main St. NEWTON: 445 Main St. NEWTON: 407 Washington St.

Shepard
The Store of the Christmas Spirit
Call HUBBARD 2300

SPECIAL GIFT OFFERS!

Save 20c
A Pair On Famous PURITAN
Silk Stockings

Sale Price 59c Regularly 79c

- 379-3-Thread Extra Sheer Chiffon
- 479-4-Thread Sheer Chiffon
- 779-7-Thread Semi-Service Weight

*Elastic reinforced.
*Elastic heel, toe.

HOSEY SHOP—STREET FLOOR

SPECIAL GIFT OFFER!

BROADCLOTH SHIRTS FOR MEN!

Pre-shrunk Broadcloth Shirts in solid white, stripes, checks and figures on light and dark grounds. "Nonwell" attached collars. 14-17, sleeves 33-35.

1-15

MEN'S SHOP—STREET FLOOR

SPECIAL GIFT OFFER!

RICHLY COVERED LOUNGE CHAIRS

Stunningly upholstered in linette or figured cotton tapestries. Chaises and figures on light and dark grounds. "Nonwell" attached collars. 14-17, sleeves 33-35.

12-88

SPECIAL SELLING SECTION—FOURTH FLOOR

SPECIAL GIFT OFFER!

STUDENT BRIDGE OR TABLE LAMPS

Bridge lamps have braced metal bases. Table lamps have pottery bases, paired styles. All have silk shades, rayonized in soft color.

5-97

SPECIAL SELLING SECTION—FOURTH FLOOR

SPECIAL GIFT OFFER!

BIG MIRRORS OR PICTURES

- "Crystal-Spark" Mirrors, 6 Styles! Well-silvered, ready to hang.
- Gilt-framed Pictures, 2 1/2"x 2 1/2". Oillette hunting, cavalier, Venetian and flower scenes.

$1 each

ROTIONS SHOP—STREET FLOOR

The Brighter Side

It is a pit out
By DAMON RUNYON

(Copyright, 1937, by King Features Syndicate, Inc. All rights reserved.)

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Dec. 16.—The question always before the House in Dade County at this season of the year is whether there will be upon gambling or not. Sometimes the answer is yes, sometimes no.

Gambling, outside of the horse and dog tracks, this jail also fronts in Miami in the State of Florida. It is a wonder, like many another state where it is tolerated by the authorities in several counties during the tourist season and Dade is usually one of these counties.

In Florida, the most famous gambling establishment in the United States has flourished without hindrance for many years. This is the Casino of Miami, which is owned by the good Colonel Edward F. Bradley, who is a well-known figure in the state. He is a gambler, and he has made a million dollars' profit as a result.

Last season, the machine were used in Dade County, and the gamblers operated their tables by attaching to them a paupers' fund. This fund was used to pay the gamblers, and the gamblers were paid with the fund. The gamblers were paid with the fund, and the gamblers were paid with the fund.

Anyhow, the slot machines have been outlawed in Dade County, and the only way open gambling can operate in the Miami area is by toleration of the authorities. The gamblers are paid with the fund, and the gamblers are paid with the fund.

FORMED SYNDICATE

It seems that last summer a number of gambling gentlemen who make the Miami area their winter habitation, formed a syndicate to take over the gambling around here, especially the city of Miami Beach, which is deemed especially fat gambling territory in the winter, and to keep out the outside gambling gentlemen who flock in to take advantage of the season.

The outsiders came just the same, and presently one New York gambling gentleman opened for trade without saying any, yes, or no to anybody, and immediately all the others, in a business characteristic of gambling gentlemen the world over, they all got to get off.

BOYER FACTORS OUT

Do the entire Miami area has been closed to gambling, including book-making, and the gambling gentlemen, now divided into two camps, one of them, the localists, on the one hand, and the other, the outsiders, on the other hand, are at the tracks. Especially, they are opposed to book-making, down town.

Furthermore, the assembling here of representatives of the gambling gentlemen of so many different cities, including Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland, New York, and others, and their bickering, has made the local citizens uneasy. They are afraid of an out-and-out war among the gambling gentlemen, and so the community has apparently settled down to a policy of eliminating all the undesirable gambling gentlemen by an expedient that cannot fail. It is going to starve them out.

Some of the clubs can break even, or perhaps make a little money without gambling, but most of them, depending only on the sale of food and liquor, must go broke, for the season here is short, and competition is terrific.

Train Leaves Rails, 20 Hurt in Detroit

DETROIT, Dec. 17 (AP)—Twenty persons were injured today, several seriously, when a speeding Pere Marquette passenger train left the rails at a grade crossing near this city. All four coaches of the train dived over on their side. About 40 persons were aboard the train.

Seek to Indict Stock Brokers

Indictments will be sought Monday against officers of W. A. Nash and Company, Boston brokerage house, charging "high pressure" sales methods in disposing of 300,000 shares of mining stock.

Attorney General Paul A. Dever today announced he had appointed assistant Paul M. Grossman to appear before the Suffolk County grand jury to seek the indictments.

Dever said the stock, issued by the Egan Mining Company of Vancouver, B. C., was supposed of in Massachusetts.

Dever's action climaxes an investigation of six months, initiated by the Public Utilities Department. It alleged the officers of the brokerage company conducted classes to sell securities in "high pressure" setting.

Rainfall Makes Roads Perilous

Frequent rain today turned New England highways into treacherous, slush-filled arteries, causing some death and many injuries and making auto travel hazardous.

The weather bureau predicted more rain today and tomorrow, with higher temperatures, forecasting that the remnants of yesterday's snow would be washed away.

Snow removal operations continued in Boston.

An ice-cold highway brought death to Theron W. Rounds, 41, of Charlestown, who was killed instantly when his car skidded on frozen Center road, R. I., and crashed into a tree.

In a similar accident on Brattle street, Cambridge, James J. Whelan, 38, of Adams street, Newton was critically injured.

James Barry, of Mavrick street, Marblehead, received a fracture right shoulder when the truck and trailer he was driving struck a telephone pole and plunged over a 15-foot embankment.

Maine Highway Chief Quits

To a similar accident on Brattle street, Cambridge, James J. Whelan, 38, of Adams street, Newton was critically injured.

James Barry, of Mavrick street, Marblehead, received a fracture right shoulder when the truck and trailer he was driving struck a telephone pole and plunged over a 15-foot embankment.

Belief the executive council had forced the highway commission to resign, today brought resignation of Commissioner Charles Murray of Bangor.

7 Persons Hurt In Malden Crash

Seven persons were injured when two cars collided head on at Hunt Street, on the Newburyport turnpike, Malden, today.

Roderick L. Grace, 29, of Walnut street, Lynnfield, driver of one automobile, was so severely cut about the face that it required 20 stitches to close the wounds.

Twelve stitches were necessary to suture the other driver, Martin Butler, 32, of Reservoir road, Arlington.

Anthony Curnish, 52, of Auburn street, Cambridge, a passenger in the Bluff car, suffered a broken right leg, and four others in the same car had cuts on their faces and heads. All were treated at Maplewood Hospital.

A "BANNER" CHRISTMAS GIFT!

SCHRAFF'S

BLUE BANNER SPECIAL CHOCOLATES

One of Schraff's most popular packages—fervently banded for the holidays! A fine lot of candy for a little!

60c LB.
1 AND 2 LBS.

COME IN—SAY CHARGE IT and Take Your Gifts With You!

ROGERS Jewelry

$2,000,000 Birthday Sale

Our Facilities Enable Us To Open Accounts in as Little as 3 Minutes.

EMERSON
Compact
$14.95
50c a week
AC DC — Plays Anywhere — Neat, Compact, Powerful — In Handsome Walnut Baffle Cabinet

EMERSON
Table Model
$23.95
50c a week
4 Tubes—AC DC Superheterodyne, Police, Amateur, Aerophone, Dynamic Speaker in Walnut Cabinet

EMERSON
Console
$49.95 $1 A WEEK
4 Tubes Superheterodyne—American, Foreign, Police, Dynamic Speaker, Automatic Volume Control, Tone Control—Emerson Foreign Tuning Principle.

SHOP IN COMFORT AT ROGERS—THE LARGEST CREDIT JEWELRY STORE IN NEW ENGLAND.

OPEN EVERY EVENING

ROGERS JEWELRY STORES

2 BOSTON STORES
569 Washington Street—42 Winter Street
Cambridge Store—563 MASS. AVE.—Central Square

PROVIDENCE, LEWISTON, PORTLAND, PITTSFIELD, BRIDGEPORT, AUGUSTA
240 Westminster St. 22 Lisbon St. 540 Congress St. 229 North St. 1130 Main St. 100 Water St.

2 Torch Deaths Weird Puzzle

PITTSBURGH, Dec. 17 (AP)—The coroner's office investigated today the "human torch" deaths of a 56-year-old automobile salesman and his blonde, attractive 38-year-old wife.

Mrs. Clara Kretschman died today of burns in a suburban hospital, where her husband, Charles, died yesterday of shock and burns.

A son of Mrs. Kretschman by a previous marriage told the coroner he went to his home and found his mother and stepfather in the bathroom, their clothing ablaze.

The coroner said he believed Kretschman had poured gasoline on his clothing, ignited the cloth, and then clutched his wife to him.

5,000 Strike in Paris

PARIS, Dec. 17 (AP)—More than 5,000 workers were on strike in a dozen factories in and around Paris today. Half of the strikers were bakery workers seeking wage increases.

[illegible]

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 17 (AP)—

the Cough Drop,
Millions Prefer
to the Short, Quick Gulp
of Old-Fashioned Syrups

the Cough Drop,
Millions Prefer
to the Short, Quick Gulp
of Old-Fashioned Syrups

More convenient,
less expensive...
lingers longer in the throat.

Medicated with Throat-Seething ingredients of Vicks VapoRub

WHERE IS STORE BUYING

Shop at your Nearest Kmart Store

K

740 WASH
MALDEN—9 Dartmouth St.
CAMBRIDGE—505 Mass. Ave.
HYDE PARK—1295 River St.

OPEN EVERY EV

MAPLE Finish Hard Wood
Breakfast Sets—5 Pieces
A Breakfast Set on $9.95

MAPLE Finish Hard Wood Breakfast Sets—5 Pieces
A Beautiful Set at an $8.95

ing buy-ly 50 at so x price.

Savings: Double drop leaf table and 4 chairs
All included,

9⁴⁵ for a
Week

POWER MEANS BIGGER SAVINGS TO YOU

LINE'S

Child's Rockers

Steel Seater

OPENING TILL CHRISTMAS

L TOYS
And Smokers

L TOYS
And Smokers

89c	Child's Large Aulos	4.95
79c	Breakfast	2.39

2.95 Smokers
As Low As 69c

8 Pieces! A Complete 2 In 1 Room

SAVE exactly $17.55. A living room by day and at night a bedroom with full or twin beds to take care of your Holiday guests. Triple studio couch, occasional chair, and table, lamp & Shade, cocktail smoker and

Our $39.50 Value

$ 21⁹⁵

800
A Week

Genuine MAGEE Cabinet
Oil Machine

Oil Heaters
Final closeout!
Reduced nearly 1/2! Fully quaranteed. Easily movable. A RARE bargain.

8⁹⁵
50¢ A
Week

Judge Barron's Chief Thrill Family Joy

Kin of Woman Jurist
Delighted at Her Nomination

"My greatest joy is the happiness I have brought my family. That was the sentiment Judge Jennie Lottman Barron, first woman ever appointed to a regular post in the history of Massachusetts judiciary, voiced today.

Judge Barron, who had been a special justice in Walpole, was named associate justice of the Boston municipal court by Governor Hurley. Her appointment is still to be confirmed by the governor's council.

The judge positively wouldn't believe it when we first told her, her associates in the Barron law office on Milk street, in downtown Boston, said it "came as a bolt out of the blue."

CALLS PARENTS

When she did realize that the story was true, her first action was to call up her family, her aged mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Emma Lottman, at home on Cummings road in Brighton, to tell them the good news.

"That was what gave me my greatest thrill," she repeated, "telling my mother and father that I had been nominated. My father is 75, and he and my mother celebrated their golden wedding anniversary last month."

Related to her family office, stopping again and again to answer the telephone messages of congratulations, Judge Barron smiled and nodded her happiness.

"My friends make me happy," she added. Her husband's joy as he sat in the office next to her, though unexpressed, was equally great.

"I don't know what I'd do without him," Mrs. Barron admitted.

DAUGHTER TOLD

As soon as she called her mother, her father also telephoned to her eldest daughter, Emma Lottman Barron, 18, who is a freshman at Wellesley.

Her other children include Deborah, 14, a freshman at the high school, and Joy, six, who is in grammar school.

Other members of her family include Mrs. Rose Lottman, also an attorney, and Mrs. Joseph E. Crossman, wife of the Governor's Councilman from Quincy.

Judge Barron has been engaged in the practice of law for 23 years at this time. A prominent member of the Women's Republican Club, she has long been active in public life as an active supporter of improvement campaigns.

GIVES UP PRACTICE
She was at one time an assistant to the attorney general, and also a member of the Boston School Committee.

"Now I'm going to have to give up my practice of law," she said. "This being a justice, if I am confirmed, will be a full time job."

When she was but 22 she worked in a shoe factory in Boston.

"Even then, as a child, my ambitions were high," she admitted. "I wanted to go high. I didn't know exactly where, but I knew I had been nominated for the post of associate justice, I am very happy."

I hope that I will be able to continue whatever public service I am doing."

Brothers Victims
In Auto Accident

Two Middleton brothers were in serious condition today at the Memorial Hospital in Danvers following a crash of an automobile and a truck on the Andover turnpike in Danvers.

Frank Piccinelli, 14, of Hawthorn park, Middleton, suffered a brain concussion, and his brother, Philip, 16, a punctured lung in the collision. Five others were slightly injured in the accident.

She's First Council Battle Looms Over McSweeney

Sharp Fight Hinted
On Confirmation
Of Moynihan

For widely different reasons, fights on confirmation of Eugene M. McSweeney as commissioner of public safety and Patrick J. Moynihan as chairman of the commission on administration and finance are expected in the executive council next Thursday.

Friends of Governor Curley, who ousted McSweeney as Boston's police commissioner, are expected to oppose his approval as successor to Paul G. Kirk, who was confirmed yesterday as superior court judge.

Republican members of the commission, it is understood, may argue against confirmation of Moynihan to the job now held by Charles P. Howard, an active Republican.

Action on those nominations of Governor Hurley was held up yesterday when Councilman Frank A. Brooks objected to suspension of the rules.

KELLY TO ENTER FIGHT
Lieutenant Governor Francis E. Kelly was prepared to make a similar objection.

Other objections to immediate action were because of the absence of Councilman Edgar T. Lindsay and the desire of Councilman Hayward to inquire further into the appointment of Moynihan.

Paul observers forecast, however, both McSweeney and Moynihan will be confirmed without comment.

Howard asserted he had no intention of fighting to retain his job. He has indicated in the past that he was indifferent regarding re-appointment. For that reason it is possible Republican members of the commission may not object strenuously.

FIRES KEEN ON CASSIDY
Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Council Battle Looms Over McSweeney

Sharp Fight Hinted
On Confirmation
Of Moynihan

For widely different reasons, fights on confirmation of Eugene M. McSweeney as commissioner of public safety and Patrick J. Moynihan as chairman of the commission on administration and finance are expected in the executive council next Thursday.

Friends of Governor Curley, who ousted McSweeney as Boston's police commissioner, are expected to oppose his approval as successor to Paul G. Kirk, who was confirmed yesterday as superior court judge.

Republican members of the commission, it is understood, may argue against confirmation of Moynihan to the job now held by Charles P. Howard, an active Republican.

Action on those nominations of Governor Hurley was held up yesterday when Councilman Frank A. Brooks objected to suspension of the rules.

KELLY TO ENTER FIGHT
Lieutenant Governor Francis E. Kelly was prepared to make a similar objection.

Other objections to immediate action were because of the absence of Councilman Edgar T. Lindsay and the desire of Councilman Hayward to inquire further into the appointment of Moynihan.

Paul observers forecast, however, both McSweeney and Moynihan will be confirmed without comment.

Howard asserted he had no intention of fighting to retain his job. He has indicated in the past that he was indifferent regarding re-appointment. For that reason it is possible Republican members of the commission may not object strenuously.

FIRES KEEN ON CASSIDY
Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

Another nomination which undoubtedly will cause a split vote in the council is that of Thomas F. Cassidy of Chelsea to a new term as member of the state planning commission.

Cassidy has been in for two years. Councilman Tuckerman asserted the position demands the active service of a man physically competent to perform the duties. He would not object to Cassidy's appointment to a second term, but he would not support his re-appointment for a week.

First National Stores

FACE OF RUMP

FANCY BONELESS PRIME HEAVY CORN-FED BEEF!

1/6 33c

BACON

Sliced - Rindless Sugar Cured LB 29c

EGGS

HENFIELD - GUARANTEED 2 DOZ 49c

CHEESE

MILD WHOLE MILK VARIETY AGED JUST RIGHT LB 25c

LARD

OR OLEO 2 1 LB CTNS 23c

COFFEE

RICHMOND 2 1/2 LB 33c JOHN ALDEN 2 1/2 LB 39c KYBO 1 LB BAGS 43c

CIGARETTES

CHESTERFIELD - OLD GOLD - CAMEL - LUCKY STRIKE - 8 pgs 25c

CARTON 10 PKGS $1.19

HERSHEY'S COCOA

2 8 TINS 13c

PINK SALMON

FANCY ALASKA 2 TALL TINS 25c

RED SALMON

FANCY ALASKA TALL TIN 23c

FANCY SHRIMP

MEDIUM SIZE 2 1 TINS 25c

TOMATO JUICE

FINAST 3 24 oz TINS 25c

DAINTY JELL

& PURE FRUIT FLAVORS GELATINE DESSERTS 4 PKGS 15c

MACARONI

OR FINAST SPAGHETTI 3 8 oz PKGS 17c

FINAST OR LEMON MONTE PEARS

LGE TIN 19c

SPAGHETTI

RICHMOND COOKED WITH SAUCE 3 1/2 oz TINS 20c

Canned PEA Sale

STANDARD A GOOD VALUE 3 1/2 TINS 25c

RICHMOND SWEET TENDER 2 1/2 TINS 29c

FINAST TINY TENDER 2 1/2 TINS 33c

RICHMOND PRUNES

MED SIZE 2 1 LB PKGS 29c

SARDINES

STANDARD NORWEGIAN 2 1/2 TINS 15c

ROYAL ANNE

CHERRIES 2 TINS 29c

MOLASSES

FINAST LOGE LIGHT TIN 23c RICHMOND LOGE FANCY DARK TIN 17c

BAKED BEANS

FINAST OVEN BAKED 2 1/2 TINS 25c

KIRKMAN'S SOAP

4 BARS 17c

KIRKMAN'S SOAP FLAKES

LGE PKG 19c

BORAXO

OVAL TIN 15c BORAX 1 LB PKG 15c

TOMATO PASTE

3 1/2 TINS 17c

WINGS CIGARETTES

PKG 10c

DUFF'S GINGER BREAD MIX

14 oz TIN 25c

BLUEBERRIES

KID GLOVE 14 1/2 oz TIN 15c

DIAMOND WALNUTS

2 LBS 45c

ORANGE SALE

FANCY JUICY SWEET FLORIDAS

2 DOZ MED SIZE 35c 2 DOZ LGE SIZE 45c

Cooking Apples 7 LBS 25c

McIntosh Apples 5 LBS 25c

Grapefruit FLORIDAS 80 SIZE 4 FOR 17c

Sunkist Lemons DOZ 35c

Green Peas 2 LBS 25c

Yellow Turnip 5 LBS 10c

Cranberries 2 LBS 23c

Carrots LARGE BUNCHES 2 BNCHS 13c

WAREHOUSE

FREE Delivery Just in Time for Xmas

Brand New Upright Pianos $99 PER WEEK

PIANO SALE

BRAND NEW CONSOLE TYPE PIANOS $129

SAVE MOVING! We will let you see piano in your home before you buy.

Brand New Grand Pianos $179

Small Size Upright Pianos $35

NO MONEY DOWN PAYMENTS BEGIN IN FEBRUARY 30 DAYS TRIAL

Fireproof Piano Warehouse 603 NEWBURY ST. BOSTON

Roosevelt's Views on How Business Can Be Revived

Believes Special Session of Congress Has Paved Way For Practical Achievement in Near Future

(The following exclusive copyrighted dispatch by Merville Stanley Ruker, noted financial commentator for International News Service, gives an authoritative presentation of President Roosevelt's attitude toward the current business recession and the effect anticipated from the special session of Congress.)

By MERVILLE STANLEY RUKER

Noted Financial Commentator

WASHINGTON, Dec. 17 (INS)—President Roosevelt believes that the calling of Congress in special session has resulted in net gains for the nation, it was learned today. The view is held that the extra session will be a net gain for the nation, it was learned today. The view is held that the extra session will be a net gain for the nation, it was learned today.

UP TO BUSINESS MEN
The President's attitude is that the business men are the ones who must take the lead in reviving the economy. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

FIGHTING POVERTY
The President is also concerned with the problem of poverty. He believes that the government has a duty to provide relief for the unemployed and to create jobs for those who are out of work.

PROBLEM OF LITIGATION
The President is also concerned with the problem of litigation. He believes that the courts should be able to handle cases more efficiently and that the legal system should be reformed.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

THE GOVERNMENT'S ROLE
The President believes that the government has a duty to provide a framework within which business can flourish. He believes that the government's role is to provide a framework within which business can flourish.

Village to Bear Famous Names

State in Old Colony Village... The village of... The village of... The village of...

Greenwood Case Ruling Today

FITCHBURGH, Dec. 17—A jury... The jury... The jury...

Loses His Arm To Save a Life

TORRINGTON, Ct., Dec. 17 (INS)—... The man... The man...

New Tobin Baby To Be 'Junior'

BOSTON, Dec. 17 (INS)—... The baby... The baby...

Cromwell for Sharing Wealth

LOS ANGELES, Dec. 17 (AP)—... The man... The man...

CLYDE'S 455 WASHINGTON ST.

Gift Slippers

Velvet Satin Boa trimmed Fur trimmed

Values to $1.50

CLYDE'S 455 WASHINGTON ST.

It's BULOVA Watch Time...

at LENOX JEWELRY INC. Official BULOVA WATCH DISTRIBUTORS

AS LOW AS 50c A WEEK

Minute Man Model 8 17 Jewels $33.75

MISS AMERICA 17 Jewels $24.75

LADY BULOVA 17 Jewels $28.75

SUCCEEE 17 Jewels $24.75

ROBERTA 17 Jewels $29.75

LADY BULOVA 17 Jewels $23.75

MARTHA WASHINGTON 17 Jewels $43.50

LADY BULOVA 17 Jewels $49.50

JULIETTE 17 Jewels $75.00

SONA 17 Jewels $85.00

GILDA 17 Jewels $193.00

AMERICAN GIRL 17 Jewels $39.75

AMERICAN GIRL 17 Jewels $39.75

AMERICAN GIRL 17 Jewels $39.75

EASY WEEKLY TERMS

LENOX JEWELRY INC. Official BULOVA Watch Distributors 566 WASHINGTON ST. NO INTEREST CHARGE—NO CARRYING CHARGE

OPEN EVENINGS TILL CHRISTMAS

Send in Your Pictures and Snapshots to the Editor of the

AMATEUR PHOTOGRAPHERS' COMPETITION

CASH AND OTHER PRIZES—More Than 100 Awarded Each Week

For Complete Details, Rules, List of Winners, List of Prizes, and Special Department of Helpful Hints by Our Own Expert News Photographers--

See the NEXT SUNDAY ADVERTISER

Largest Newspaper Circulation in New England

THIS IS LIFE

By
Robert E. Rogers

I was very sorry to note in the newspaper that Don Marquis is seriously, perhaps hopelessly, ill, of a kind of creeping paralysis affecting his friends in New York are seeking to raise money, to lessen the struggles his sisters have undergone in recent years.

It is hard to think of Don Marquis as seriously ill. I have seen little of him in recent years, but there was a time when he had his desk next to mine in the city room of the Brooklyn Eagle, more than a quarter of a century ago. I was a cub reporter just starting out under the eagle of Hans von Rabenhorst, a classmate of mine who died in the crash of the USS M. Crist, then the news editor of the Eagle.

He had taken the job, I suspect, as a kind of stopgap while waiting for an opening in New York. He had not been very long from Atlanta, Ga., although I remember richly he was a Harvard man, but he was a born humorist and there was a place waiting for him in New York.

Many Books Revealed Him
Both Humorist and Poet

Humorist or poet? His many books reveal that he was both. But I suspect that first of all he was a poet. He once told me that while doing newspaper writing in Atlanta, he wrote many and many a poem all of which he dumped into a box under his desk for future collection and selection.

One morning he missed the box. The colored office boy informed him with great pride that "his day before he had cleaned up Don's desk and surroundings and had dumped out all the poems. Don never recovered them."

Perhaps there may have been another "Nash and Joan and Captain John Smith" among them, although at that stage of the game, I suspect he was primarily serious and lyrical and philosophical.

He tried to eke out his wages in Atlanta by starting a correspondence school for writers. He advertised, and received so much money in subscriptions that, as he told me, he was ashamed of himself, returned it all, and gave up the project because it struck him as a racket.

Sundial Column in N. Y. Paper Brought Him Fame

A little later, after I had left the Eagle for the famous column "The Sundial" on the New York Sun. For several years he positively concurred with poems, serious and comic, with philosophical inventions like the famous "almost perfect state," and with various inventions of characters whom (or why) he used to toss across his shrewd, tolerant, Epicurean philosophy of life.

The sayings of Archy the cockroach, who wrote entirely in capitals on the typewriter, because he couldn't manage the shift key. Memorable, the cat. The "little group of serious thinkers," a series in which he burlesqued and satirized the Greenwich Village crowd at the height of its publicity and absurdity, the men and women who were interested in the most modern literature, the most modern art, Freud and Gertrude Stein and Orson Welles, is really of considerable historical value, besides being very funny.

And the Sonnets to a Red-haired Lady, a quotation of which I found the other day in Christopher Morley's new edition of "Bartlett's Familiar Quotations" (Little, Brown) are excellent in their light, semi-serious vein.

Tucan's Style Followed In 'Daddy's Own Story'

When I first knew him Don Marquis had just published his first book "Daddy's Own Story," a book which followed Huckleberry Finn in both style and character. One might have thought that he was aiming at becoming another Mark Twain, but when he got to turning out his daily stunt he dropped the Hoosier atmosphere and became more New York than the New Yorkers. He dabbled, too, on drama, not unsuccessfully. Perhaps his finest play was that which deals with the events of Good Friday in the passion of Christ. More in his Sundial vein and perhaps more characteristic was his one notable stage success, "The Old Oak," definitely Epicurean and anti-prohibition, which added another full-length personage to the long list of the serio-comic American domestic drama. "The Old Oak" was a not unworthy companion to "The Munster Mystery," "The Auctioneer," "The Grand Army Man," "Lightning Bill Jones" and "The Man From Home."

The last time I saw him his gray, tawny, bushy hair had turned snow white. He had serious lines on his forehead and wrinkles for many years, but this latest news comes as a real shock.

Comics BOSTON AMERICAN Sports

Boston's Air Armada, Shot Through Haze, as It Honored Wright

Boston air armada, which included United States Army planes and privately-owned ships, paid tribute to Orville Wright, who, in 1901, made the first plane flight in a heavier-than-air machine. This remarkable picture, shot through a heavy haze, was made from the plane of Captain Richard E. Cobb of the U. S. A. Air force by Bill Jones, Boston Evening American photographer. It was snapped as two army planes flew over South Boston. In the distance (1) is the United States Army Base; in foreground (2) is the old-time Hawes Art School; (3) the famed old Station 12, now a vacant building, and (4) Ladder Company No. 9 at 4th and K streets. At the right are chimneys of the South Boston Edison plant.

Eyster Says Shooting Of Miss Foley Accident

Takings were made today of a shooting accident which occurred on the morning of December 17, 1937, when Miss Foley, a 16-year-old girl, was shot and killed by a bullet fired from a .22 caliber rifle. The shooting took place in a field near the home of the victim's father, Mr. Eyster. The bullet struck Miss Foley in the chest, and she died shortly thereafter. The police are investigating the case, and it is believed that the shooting was an accident.

'Won't Leave,' Edict of Pair On Snelind

"This is our home and our car. We won't leave and no one can force us to leave," the couple declared today in a defiant statement. The couple, who are known as the Snelinds, are currently in a legal dispute over their property. They have refused to leave their home and car, despite court orders to do so.

'Man With Million Jobs' Dies in Rutland, Aged 79

RUTLAND, Dec. 17 (AP)—Louis H. Hanft, 79, town clerk for the Town Clerks' Association of Worcester County, died today in Rutland. He was known as the "man with a million jobs" because of the many different positions he held throughout his life. He was a well-known figure in the community and was highly respected.

Maine Youth, 16, Held in Kidnap

Without a sign of concern, Len Lewis, 16, of Bangor, Maine, was held today in a kidnap. The boy was taken from his home by a group of men who claimed to be looking for him. The police are currently searching for the boy and the men who kidnaped him.

Seek 6 Boats For Palestine

A request for quotations on six boats for the Jewish Federation of Labor in Palestine was received today by the Maritime Committee of the British Commonwealth of Nations. The boats are needed for the transport of goods and passengers to Palestine.

Cites Engineer's Chances as Best

The engineer is 30 times more apt to become a "captain of industry" than the graduate of the liberal arts college, it is pointed out by Dr. Karl T. Compton, president of the National Academy of Sciences. The report is based on a study of the careers of various professionals.

Maxfield Parrish Daughter to Wed

CORNISH, N. H., Dec. 17 (AP)—Maxfield Parrish, painter and author, has announced that his daughter, Mrs. Parrish, will be married to a local man. The wedding is scheduled for a date in the near future.

Love for Child Joins Couple Reconciled After Court Battle

SALEM, Dec. 17—Love for their 16-year-old daughter today reconciled a estranged Jewish couple after a bitter court fight for custody of the child. The couple, who had been at odds for some time, have now reached an agreement and will be reunited.

Granges War On Gambling

WOICESTER, Dec. 17 (AP)—New Hampshire Grange, meeting today in Worcester, Mass., to oppose pari-mutuel horse racing. The group is concerned about the impact of gambling on the community and is taking action to oppose it.

Woman is Held In Shop Thefts

Mrs. Betty Kahn, 31, of Concord road, Waterbury, was held today in a shop theft. She was caught by police while attempting to steal goods from a store. She is currently being held in custody.

Save Chelsea Man From Auto Fumes

"Consciousness in his car, not running and garage door closed, saved for special Christmas party, was pressed into service today at his home, Franklin Street, Chelsea, reported today. The man was found in his car, which was filled with fumes, and was rescued by neighbors.

1000 Hired to Aid In Yule Mail Rush

Because of the sudden influx of Christmas mail, Postmaster Peter P. Tague today put to work 1000 of the 3000 unemployed men hired for the Yule Mail Rush. The men will be working to sort and deliver mail during the Christmas season.

Bridge Plunge Fatal

FITCHBURG, Dec. 17—Edmund Morley, 35, of Waterbury, died today at Barabank Hospital of injuries suffered when he fell 75 feet from the first bridge. The accident occurred while he was walking across the bridge.

GIRL ABOUT TOWN

By Ann Marsters

They say that the Star of Bethlehem may return again to excite the wonder of mankind. It seems that astronomers, after years of study, have come to the conclusion that the brilliant object which hovered over Bethlehem on the first Christmas might have been either a nova (exploding star) or Halley's comet.

Evidence, however, favors the latter. The Halley's comet theory. Old manuscripts disclose the appearance of the spectacular comet in 11 B. C.—a year quite within the period during which the Wise Men followed it to the manger. For astronomers have announced that the actual date of Christ's birth is "hopelessly obscure" since December 25 was not celebrated as Christmas until the fourth century, long after the real date was forgotten. Evidence indicates that the appearance of Halley's comet might have coincided with the birth of the Savior, and that at one time it stood directly over Bethlehem.

Exploding Star Regarded As Sign of Supernatural Origin

As for the nova theory, astronomers reason like this:

"A nova would easily account for the great brilliance of the star. A new star of this kind would be regarded as a sign of supernatural origin that could not fail to be heeded by everyone. One of them could have been in the right position in the Milky Way. Finally, the nova would have remained long enough for the Magi to have completed their journey before it faded from sight."

It has been decided that Halley's comet will be visible again in 1965. So many of us may live to witness what may be called the return of the "Star of Bethlehem."

'Forgetful Parents,' It Seems, Among the Younger Generation

A group of children in a Cambridge school are making Christmas presents for their parents—and they were warned by the teacher to keep it a secret until Christmas Day.

But one little girl admitted that she had told her parents of the Christmas preparations. "But it won't matter," she said, "because my parents forgot everything I tell them, anyway."

WINTER PEACE Now that the sharp white days are here again And blackened boughs wear ermine, and the spires

Of country churches catch the falling snow,
And roadways hush beneath the spinning flurries,
Within my heart there lags a quiet peace
As deep as snow-lashed hills that stand stare,
Like silent sentinels. Ah, strange it is How winter days can satisfy my heart.
—H. TOTMAN

17 Years Looking Down on World; The Astonishing 'Mr. Longfellow'

Perhaps you are familiar with the astonishing sight of Mr. "Longfellow," the man who roams Boston very often, on stilts, adverting everything from automobiles to boiled dinners.

His real name is Joseph DeVirgilio, and he's been stilt-walking for some 17 years. (Before that, he was a dancing comedian and toured the Keith circuit.) His stilt height is 15 pounds apiece, are five feet eight—and he says it's just as easy to walk with them as it is without them. Once he walked from Providence to Boston, on stilts, in 12 hours and 10 minutes.

Mr. "Longfellow" is 11 feet tall in his stilted feet—and he likes to act on the tops of automobiles, which are just the right height for him.

Christmas shopping hints:—There is undoubtedly, any number of young girls who would love a new evening wrap for Christmas. Chandler's is having a special sale of wraps this week-end. They're only $13 and some have real ermine collars... Especially nice Tyrolean sweaters in Slattery's Snow Valley Shop—at $10.95 and $14.95... White's has a cocktail set in their gift shop at $12.25. Consists of shaker and 6 glasses... Jays knitted mittens are downright adorable—each should be an acceptable gift for any young girl.

Gay Christmas Cookies Delight Children

THIS STUDY of Christmas baking is fascinating, for every day we find a fresh array of new-old inspirations for holiday cookies.

As the season of Christmas draws near, many of our excellent recipes are found down from that past.

German people look forward to the season as a social time, when families and friends gather to shell nuts, chop fruit and bake. Often two dozen different kinds of cookies are made, some hard and some sprinkled with nuts.

ALMOND PRETZEL

1 cup butter
1 cup sugar
2 beaten eggs
1 egg white
1 cup almonds

Mix all ingredients into a paste. Roll into balls. Press in pretzel shape with the hands. Brush with slightly beaten egg white and bake on lined paper for 15 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven on a greased cookie sheet ten minutes.

CHRISTMAS BOXES

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup flour
1 square grated chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Roll into balls. Press in pretzel shape with the hands. Brush with slightly beaten egg white and bake on lined paper for 15 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven on a greased cookie sheet ten minutes.

HAZELNUT COOKIES

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup flour
1 square grated chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Roll into balls. Press in pretzel shape with the hands. Brush with slightly beaten egg white and bake on lined paper for 15 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven on a greased cookie sheet ten minutes.

SWEDISH CHRISTMAS COOKIES

1 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
1/2 cup flour
1 square grated chocolate
1 teaspoon vanilla

Mix all ingredients thoroughly. Roll into balls. Press in pretzel shape with the hands. Brush with slightly beaten egg white and bake on lined paper for 15 minutes. Bake in a moderate oven on a greased cookie sheet ten minutes.

Washable, Uncrunchable Lace

CRUISE FASHIONS are giving Santa a run for his money these days, with an early start spang in the middle of Christmas shopping weeks. The delectable new styles are already installed in the shops and many a girl who's not even going to cruise from one ferry slip to another in Boston Harbor will most certainly buy choice things for next summer.

Perhaps this girl above is leaning over Castle Harbour's heavy railing and looking deep into a Bermudian sea splashed with violet and aquamarine... she's doing it with such chic in a washable, uncrunchable lace frock that cost around eight dollars! It's for active or spectator sports, of cotton lace that comes in particularly delicate patterns, and is certainly new with its love for soap and water and sturdy resistance to wrinkling.

For shopping information on this frock, phone Annie Brick, Fashion Editor, LIB-erty 4000, week-days until five, or write her at the Boston Evening American.

Gives Causes Of Nosebleed

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.

"EPISTAXIS" is a word like the name of some horrible disease. In reality, it means nothing more than nosebleed.

Some persons are much more likely to have it than others. There are many causes for nosebleeds, but usually it results from a definite nasal disturbance. If the attacks are frequent, in order to stop them it is necessary to determine the exact cause. Nasal polyps are a common cause. In children, nosebleeds are usually due to thickening and congestion of the lining of the nose, or it may result from a tiny ulcer, a tear or infection of the delicate membrane within the nose. Bleeding following a blow or fall on the nose is self-explanatory.

Nose is said to be bled sometimes a symptom in certain constitutional disorders and other serious ailments. Occasionally it may come on spontaneously, without any apparent cause. Frequent nosebleeds, especially in adults, should not be neglected. Nature's warning must never be over-looked.

Persons who suffer from high blood pressure or hardening of the arteries frequently have nosebleeds. Perhaps this is fortunate, like the blowing off of steam through a safety valve.

As a rule, nosebleeds can easily be controlled. The first essential is to remain cool and collected. Breathe in and out steadily, and keep the head tilted back and the mouth open. Do not swallow the blood. Promote more bleeding.

Insert a wad of cotton in the nostril and hold it in place for ten minutes. The application of hot water or ice to the nose and face often stops the bleeding. If the blood continues to drip into the throat, swallow the entire plug, remove the packing and insert a fresh one.

If the bleeding persists in spite of all of these measures, it is best to send for a doctor, in fact, if the bleeding is profuse, and a great deal of blood is lost, a physician should be called.

Insert a wad of cotton in the nostril and hold it in place for ten minutes.

The bleeding: North East South West 20 40 20 40 30 50 30 50 40 60 40 60 50 70 50 70 60 80 60 80 70 90 70 90 80 100 80 100 90 110 90 110 100 120 100 120 110 130 110 130 120 140 120 140 130 150 130 150 140 160 140 160 150 170 150 170 160 180 160 180 170 190 170 190 180 200 180 200 190 210 190 210 200 220 200 220 210 230 210 230 220 240 220 240 230 250 230 250 240 260 240 260 230 270 230 270 240 280 240 280 230 290 230 290 240 300 240 300 230 310 230 310 240 320 240 320 230 330 230 330 240 340 240 340 230 350 230 350 240 360 240 360 230 370 230 370 240 380 240 380 230 390 230 390 240 400 240 400 230 410 230 410 240 420 240 420 230 430 230 430 240 440 240 440 230 450 230 450 240 460 240 460 230 470 230 470 240 480 240 480 230 490 230 490 240 500 240 500 230 510 230 510 240 520 240 520 230 530 230 530 240 540 240 540 230 550 230 550 240 560 240 560 230 570 230 570 240 580 240 580 230 590 230 590 240 600 240 600 230 610 230 610 240 620 240 620 230 630 230 630 240 640 240 640 230 650 230 650 240 660 240 660 230 670 230 670 240 680 240 680 230 690 230 690 240 700 240 700 230 710 230 710 240 720 240 720 230 730 230 730 240 740 240 740 230 750 230 750 240 760 240 760 230 770 230 770 240 780 240 780 230 790 230 790 240 800 240 800 230 810 230 810 240 820 240 820 230 830 230 830 240 840 240 840 230 850 230 850 240 860 240 860 230 870 230 870 240 880 240 880 230 890 230 890 240 900 240 900 230 910 230 910 240 920 240 920 230 930 230 930 240 940 240 940 230 950 230 950 240 960 240 960 230 970 230 970 240 980 240 980 230 990 230 990 240 1000 240 1000 230 1010 230 1010 240 1020 240 1020 230 1030 230 1030 240 1040 240 1040 230 1050 230 1050 240 1060 240 1060 230 1070 230 1070 240 1080 240 1080 230 1090 230 1090 240 1100 240 1100 230 1110 230 1110 240 1120 240 1120 230 1130 230 1130 240 1140 240 1140 230 1150 230 1150 240 1160 240 1160 230 1170 230 1170 240 1180 240 1180 230 1190 230 1190 240 1200 240 1200 230 1210 230 1210 240 1220 240 1220 230 1230 230 1230 240 1240 240 1240 230 1250 230 1250 240 1260 240 1260 230 1270 230 1270 240 1280 240 1280 230 1290 230 1290 240 1300 240 1300 230 1310 230 1310 240 1320 240 1320 230 1330 230 1330 240 1340 240 1340 230 1350 230 1350 240 1360 240 1360 230 1370 230 1370 240 1380 240 1380 230 1390 230 1390 240 1400 240 1400 230 1410 230 1410 240 1420 240 1420 230 1430 230 1430 240 1440 240 1440 230 1450 230 1450 240 1460 240 1460 230 1470 230 1470 240 1480 240 1480 230 1490 230 1490 240 1500 240 1500 230 1510 230 1510 240 1520 240 1520 230 1530 230 1530 240 1540 240 1540 230 1550 230 1550 240 1560 240 1560 230 1570 230 1570 240 1580 240 1580 230 1590 230 1590 240 1600 240 1600 230 1610 230 1610 240 1620 240 1620 230 1630 230 1630 240 1640 240 1640 230 1650 230 1650 240 1660 240 1660 230 1670 230 1670 240 1680 240 1680 230 1690 230 1690 240 1700 240 1700 230 1710 230 1710 240 1720 240 1720 230 1730 230 1730 240 1740 240 1740 230 1750 230 1750 240 1760 240 1760 230 1770 230 1770 240 1780 240 1780 230 1790 230 1790 240 1800 240 1800 230 1810 230 1810 240 1820 240 1820 230 1830 230 1830 240 1840 240 1840 230 1850 230 1850 240 1860 240 1860 230 1870 230 1870 240 1880 240 1880 230 1890 230 1890 240 1900 240 1900 230 1910 230 1910 240 1920 240 1920 230 1930 230 1930 240 1940 240 1940 230 1950 230 1950 240 1960 240 1960 230 1970 230 1970 240 1980 240 1980 230 1990 230 1990 240 2000 240 2000 230 2010 230 2010 240 2020 240 2020 230 2030 230 2030 240 2040 240 2040 230 2050 230 2050 240 2060 240 2060 230 2070 230 2070 240 2080 240 2080 230 2090 230 2090 240 2100 240 2100 230 2110 230 2110 240 2120 240 2120 230 2130 230 2130 240 2140 240 2140 230 2150 230 2150 240 2160 240 2160 230 2170 230 2170 240 2180 240 2180 230 2190 230 2190 240 2200 240 2200 230 2210 230 2210 240 2220 240 2220 230 2230 230 2230 240 2240 240 2240 230 2250 230 2250 240 2260 240 2260 230 2270 230 2270 240 2280 240 2280 230 2290 230 2290 240 2300 240 2300 230 2310 230 2310 240 2320 240 2320 230 2330 230 2330 240 2340 240 2340 230 2350 230 2350 240 2360 240 2360 230 2370 230 2370 240 2380 240 2380 230 2390 230 2390 240 2400 240 2400 230 2410 230 2410 240 2420 240 2420 230 2430 230 2430 240 2440 240 2440 230 2450 230 2450 240 2460 240 2460 230 2470 230 2470 240 2480 240 2480 230 2490 230 2490 240 2500 240 2500 230 2510 230 2510 240 2520 240 2520 230 2530 230 2530 240 2540 240 2540 230 2550 230 2550 240 2560 240 2560 230 2570 230 2570 240 2580 240 2580 230 2590 230 2590 240 2600 240 2600 230 2610 230 2610 240 2620 240 2620 230 2630 230 2630 240 2640 240 2640 230 2650 230 2650 240 2660 240 2660 230 2670 230 2670 240 2680 240 2680 230 2690 230 2690 240 2700 240 2700 230 2710 230 2710 240 2720 240 2720 230 2730 230 2730 240 2740 240 2740 230 2750 230 2750 240 2760 240 2760 230 2770 230 2770 240 2780 240 2780 230 2790 230 2790 240 2800 240 2800 230 2810 230 2810 240 2820 240 2820 230 2830 230 2830 240 2840 240 2840 230 2850 230 2850 240 2860 240 2860 230 2870 230 2870 240 2880 240 2880 230 2890 230 2890 240 2900 240 2900 230 2910 230 2910 240 2920 240 2920 230 2930 230 2930 240 2940 240 2940 230 2950 230 2950 240 2960 240 2960 230 2970 230 2970 240 2980 240 2980 230 2990 230 2990 240 3000 240 3000 230 3010 230 3010 240 3020 240 3020 230 3030 230 3030 240 3040 240 3040 230 3050 230 3050 240 3060 240 3060 230 3070 230 3070 240 3080 240 3080 230 3090 230 3090 240 3100 240 3100 230 3110 230 3110 240 3120 240 3120 230 3130 230 3130 240 3140 240 3140 230 3150 230 3150 240 3160 240 3160 230 3170 230 3170 240 3180 240 3180 230 3190 230 3190 240 3200 240 3200 230 3210 230 3210 240 3220 240 3220 230 3230 230 3230 240 3240 240 3240 230 3250 230 3250 240 3260 240 3260 230 3270 230 3270 240 3280 240 3280 230 3290 230 3290 240 3300 240 3300 230 3310 230 3310 240 3320 240 3320 230 3330 230 3330 240 3340 240 3340 230 3350 230 3350 240 3360 240 3360 230 3370 230 3370 240 3380 240 3380 230 3390 230 3390 240 3400 240 3400 230 3410 230 3410 240 3420 240 3420 230 3430 230 3430 240 3440 240 3440 230 3450 230 3450 240 3460 240 3460 230 3470 230 3470 240 3480 240 3480 230 3490 230 3490 240 3500 240 3500 230 3510 230 3510 240 3520 240 3520 230 3530 230 3530 240 3540 240 3540 230 3550 230 3550 240 3560 240 3560 230 3570 230 3570 240 3580 240 3580 230 3590 230 3590 240 3600 240 3600 230 3610 230 3610 240 3620 240 3620 230 3630 230 3630 240 3640 240 3640 230 3650 230 3650 240 3660 240 3660 230 3670 230 3670 240 3680 240 3680 230 3690 230 3690 240 3700 240 3700 230 3710 230 3710 240 3720 240 3720 230 3730 230 3730 240 3740 240 3740 230 3750 230 3750 240 3760 240 3760 230 3770 230 3770 240 3780 240 3780 230 3790 230 3790 240 3800 240 3800 230 3810 230 3810 240 3820 240 3820 230 3830 230 3830 240 3840 240 3840 230 3850 230 3850 240 3860 240 3860 230 3870 230 3870 240 3880 240 3880 230 3890 230 3890 240 3900 240 3900 230 3910 230 3910 240 3920 240 3920 230 3930 230 3930 240 3940 240 3940 230 3950 230 3950 240 3960 240 3960 230 3970 230 3970 240 3980 240 3980 230 3990 230 3990 240 4000 240 4000 230 4010 230 4010 240 4020 240 4020 230 4030 230 4030 240 4040 240 4040 230 4050 230 4050 240 4060 240 4060 230 4070 230 4070 240 4080 240 4080 230 4090 230 4090 240 4100 240 4100 230 4110 230 4110 240 4120 240 4120 230 4130 230 4130 240 4140 240 4140 230 4150 230 4150 240 4160 240 4160 230 4170 230 4170 240 4180 240 4180 230 4190 230 4190 240 4200 240 4200 230 4210 230 4210 240 4220 240 4220 230 4230 230 4230 240 4240 240 4240 230 4250 230 4250 240 4260 240 4260 230 4270 230 4270 240 4280 240 4280 230 4290 230 4290 240 4300 240 4300 230 4310 230 4310 240 4320 240 4320 230 4330 230 4330 240 4340 240 4340 230 4350 230 4350 240 4360 240 4360 230 4370 230 4370 240 4380 240 4380 230 4390 230 4390 240 4400 240 4400 230 4410 230 4410 240 4420 240 4420 230 4430 230 4430 240 4440 240 4440 230 4450 230 4450 240 4460 240 4460 230 4470 230 4470 240 4480 240 4480 230 4490 230 4490 240 4500 240 4500 230 4510 230 4510 240 4520 240 4520 230 4530 230 4530 240 4540 240 4540 230 4550 230 4550 240 4560 240 4560 230 4570 230 4570 240 4580 240 4580 230 4590 230 4590 240 4600 240 4600 230 4610 230 4610 240 4620 240 4620 230 4630 230 4630 240 4640 240 4640 230 4650 230 4650 240 4660 240 4660 230 4670 230 4670 240 4680 240 4680 230 4690 230 4690 240 4700 240 4700 230 4710 230 4710 240 4720 240 4720 230 4730 230 4730 240 4740 240 4740 230 4750 230 4750 240 4760 240 4760 230 4770 230 4770 240 4780 240 4780 230 4790 230 4790 240 4800 240 4800 230 4810 230 4810 240 4820 240 4820 230 4830 230 4830 240 4840 240 4840 230 4850 230 4850 240 4860 240 4860 230 4870 230 4870 240 4880 240 4880 230 4890 230 4890 240 4900 240 4900 230 4910 230 4910 240 4920 240 4920 230 4930 230 4930 240 4940 240 4940 230 4950 230 4950 240 4960 240 4960 230 4970 230 4970 240 4980 240 4980 230 4990 230 4990 240 5000 240 5000 230 5010 230 5010 240 5020 240 5020 230 5030 230 5030 240 5040 240 5040 230 5050 230 5050 240 5060 240 5060 230 5070 230 5070 240 5080 240 5080 230 5090 230 5090 240 5100 240 5100 230 5110 230 5110 240 5120 240 5120 230 5130 230 5130 240 5140 240 5140 230 5150 230 5150 240 5160 240 5160 230 5170 230 5170 240 5180 240 5180 230 5190 230 5190 240 5200 240 5200 230 5210 230 5210 240 5220 240 5220 230 5230 230 5230 240 5240 240 5240 230 5250 230 5250 240 5260 240 5260 230 5270 230 5270 240 5280 240 5280 230 5290 230 5290 240 5300 240 5300 230 5310 230 5310 240 5320 240 5320 230 5330 230 5330 240 5340 240 5340 230 5350 230 5350 240 5360 240 5360 230 5370 230 5370 240 5380 240 5380 230 5390 230 5390 240 5400 240 5400 230 5410 230 5410 240 5420 240 5420 230 5430 230 5430 240 5440 240 5440 230 5450 230 5450 240 5460 240 5460 230 5470 230 5470 240 5480 240 5480 230 5490 230 5490 240 5500 240 5500 230 5510 230 5510 240 5520 240 5520 230 5530 230 5530 240 5540 240 5540 230 5550 230 5550 240 5560 240 5560 230 5570 230 5570 240 5580 240 5580 230 5590 230 5590 240 5600 240 5600 230 5610 230 5610 240 5620 240 5620 230 5630 230 5630 240 5640 240 5640 230 5650 230 5650 240 5660 240 5660 230 5670 230 5670 240 5680 240 5680 230 5690 230 5690 240 5700 240 5700 230 5710 230 5710 240 5720 240 5720 230 5730 230 573

Best Bets Tonight On Air Waves

- 8:45 p. m.—WHEX—Uncle Ned reading the comic pages of the Boston Evening American.
- 8:46 p. m.—WEEI—Ted Hammerstein's Music Hall, presenting Eric O'Brien Moore, actress; Lee Sullivan, tenor; Alice Marston, contralto, and Jerry Mann, comedian.
- 8:45 p. m.—WHEX—John Jones Steel, commentator.
- 9:00 p. m.—WFFI—Hollywood hits, with Louella Parsons introducing John Barrymore, Elaine Barrie and John Howard in "Building Drummond's Revenge" and Frances Langford, Letitia Lee, Jerry Cover, Anne Jamieson and Raymond Paige's Orchestra.
- 9:00 p. m.—WHEX—Variety show broadcast from Fordham college, with Paul Dumant as master of ceremonies.
- 10:00 p. m.—WEEI—The Songbook, with Kitty Carlisle, Reed Kennedy, Alice Corbett, Frank Crumit and Gussie Horvath's Orchestra.
- 10:00 p. m.—WBZ—Buddy Bear, Little Huan Huan, and the Red Hot Chili Peppers.

Radioland Reflections

Friday evening ether effort includes a turn by John Barrymore, of the acting Barrymores, with Elaine Barrie by his side and as a "Hollywood Hotel" hour (WEEI) highlight between 9 and 10 o'clock.

There will be a program preview of "Building Drummond's Revenge" as recently completed for the films by Barrymore.

Elaine Barrie recently reunited with Barrymore, is not of the film, but has been urged by Louella Parsons, noted press columnist and critic for the Boston Evening American, to assume the broadcasting role tonight. Numerous prominent personalities are to be featured by the Barrymores with a view to being captured by reflecting the new year just around the calendar corner.

Some minor acts, including a "Variety Show" and a "Hollywood Hotel" hour, will be featured.

By N. F. T.

JOE PALOOKA

SECRET AGENT X-9

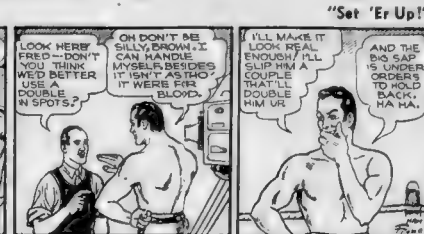

ROY POWERS, EAGLE SCOUT

BARNEY GOOGLE

MANDRAKE, THE MAGICIAN

Another Diabolical Trick

Dillon Leaves Without Buying

Protective "Weight"

Up a Tree!

ROGERS
PEET

Christmas Sale! for BOYS

Boys' Sports Shirts
(Broken lots)
Regular and Gaucho model with long sleeves

Were $1—
75c
(3 for $1.95)

Mothers will appreciate these unusual values. Brushed-cotton and plain broadcloth shirts for boys in regular shirting fabrics. Also knit sports shirts. Sizes 8 to 20.

Boys' Blouses

Were $1—
75c
(3 for $1.95)

Regular and Eton collars. Fancy weave broadcloth and woven shirting fabrics. Sizes 4 to 10.

Rogers Peet Company

104 TREMONT STREET, AT BROMFIELD

Coca-Cola
presents
The Song Shop
TONIGHT
WEEI 10 PM
WBZ 7:15-7:30 P. M.
DR. KARL REILAND
NEW - DIFFERENT
COURTESY OF DESPERADO
LATVICS

SONOTONE
No Longer Handicapped
You may hear again
the music that has been denied you because of your hearing loss. Sonotone is the only hearing aid that gives you
the natural sound of
the human voice.
It is the only hearing
aid that gives you
the natural sound of
the human voice.
It is the only hearing
aid that gives you
the natural sound of
the human voice.

TODAY'S RADIO TIMETABLE OF PROGRAMS—FRIDAY, DECEMBER 17
TODAY		120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M	120 E.—WOL—205.5 M
12:00—News	12:30—Helen West: Romance	1:00—Betty Crocker	1:30—A. G. Brown: Dispatch	2:00—The Woman's Eyes	2:30—School of Air	3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum
12:30—Calling Hollywood	12:45—Gail Sweddy	1:15—Betty Crocker	1:45—Hollywood in Person	2:15—Music Appreciation	2:45—School of Air	3:15—Radio Guild	3:45—Concert Hall	4:15—Health Forum	4:45—The Author
1:00—Betty Crocker	1:15—Betty Crocker	1:30—A. G. Brown: Dispatch	1:45—Hollywood in Person	2:00—The Woman's Eyes	2:30—School of Air	3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum
1:30—A. G. Brown: Dispatch	1:45—Hollywood in Person	2:00—The Woman's Eyes	2:30—School of Air	3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern
2:00—The Woman's Eyes	2:30—School of Air	3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern
2:30—School of Air	3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon
3:00—Radio Guild	3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern
3:30—Concert Hall	4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon
4:00—The Author	4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern
4:30—Health Forum	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon
5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern
5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon
5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern
5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon
6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern
6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon
6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern
6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon
7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern
7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon
7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern
7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon
8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern
8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon
8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern
8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon
9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern
9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon
9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern
9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon
10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern
10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon
10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern
10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon
11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern
11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon
11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern
11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon
12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern
12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon
12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern
12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon
1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern
1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon
1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern
1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon
2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern
2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon
2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern
2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon
3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern
3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon
3:30—Follow the Moon	3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern
3:45—Mary Southern	4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon
4:00—Follow the Moon	4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern
4:15—Mary Southern	4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon
4:30—Follow the Moon	4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern
4:45—Mary Southern	5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon
5:00—Follow the Moon	5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern
5:15—Mary Southern	5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon
5:30—Follow the Moon	5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern
5:45—Mary Southern	6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon
6:00—Follow the Moon	6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern
6:15—Mary Southern	6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon
6:30—Follow the Moon	6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern
6:45—Mary Southern	7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon
7:00—Follow the Moon	7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern
7:15—Mary Southern	7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon
7:30—Follow the Moon	7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern
7:45—Mary Southern	8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon
8:00—Follow the Moon	8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern
8:15—Mary Southern	8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon
8:30—Follow the Moon	8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern
8:45—Mary Southern	9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon
9:00—Follow the Moon	9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern
9:15—Mary Southern	9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon
9:30—Follow the Moon	9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern
9:45—Mary Southern	10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon
10:00—Follow the Moon	10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern
10:15—Mary Southern	10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon
10:30—Follow the Moon	10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern
10:45—Mary Southern	11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon
11:00—Follow the Moon	11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern
11:15—Mary Southern	11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon
11:30—Follow the Moon	11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern
11:45—Mary Southern	12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon
12:00—Follow the Moon	12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern
12:15—Mary Southern	12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon
12:30—Follow the Moon	12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern
12:45—Mary Southern	1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon
1:00—Follow the Moon	1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern
1:15—Mary Southern	1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon	2:15—Mary Southern	2:30—Follow the Moon	2:45—Mary Southern	3:00—Follow the Moon	3:15—Mary Southern	3:30—Follow the Moon
1:30—Follow the Moon	1:45—Mary Southern	2:00—Follow the Moon

THIMBLE THEATER, Starring POPEYE

See Popeye in Color the Deallay This Week

BLONDIE

BRINGING UP FATHER

SKIPPY

LITTLE ANNIE ROONEY

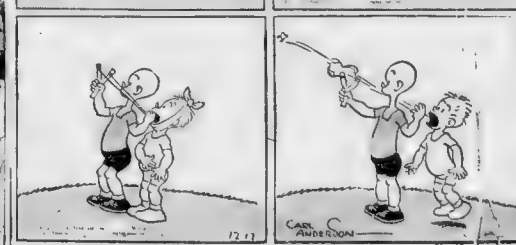

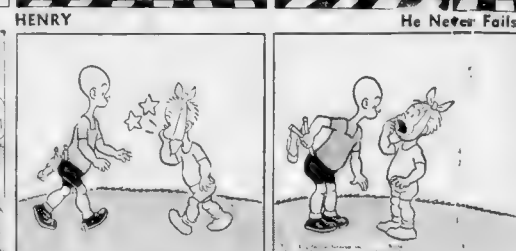

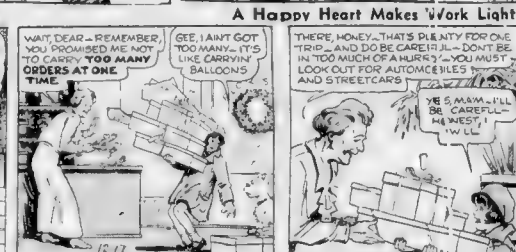

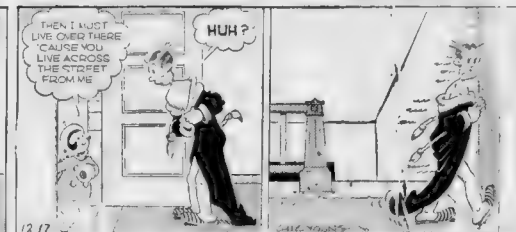

POLLY AND HER PALS

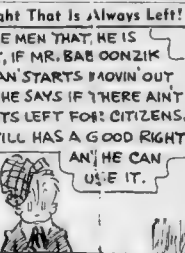

ROOM AND BOARD

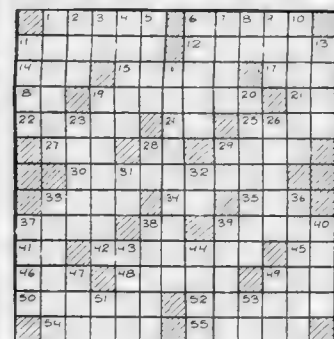

A "Big Happy Family"

Getting Her Barqains

CROSS-WORD PUZZLE -- By Eugene Sheffer

- HORIZONTAL
- 1-camera
 - 6-max
 - 11-walrus
 - 12-planet
 - 14-silverfish
 - 15-nurse
 - 16-garment
 - 17-Brazil
 - 18-Japanese name
 - 19-measure
 - 20-state of being a common laborer
 - 21-permanent
 - 22-apportion
 - 24-Indian madder
 - 25-even
 - 27-Indian split pea
- VERTICAL
- 1-assault
 - 2-Guido
 - 3-Male
 - 4-Anglo
 - 5-dragon
 - 6-servant
 - 7-male
 - 8-mere
 - 9-mother of
 - 10-Apoel
 - 11-male
 - 12-male
 - 13-male
 - 14-male
 - 15-male
 - 16-male
 - 17-male
 - 18-male
 - 19-male
 - 20-male
 - 21-male
 - 22-male
 - 23-male
 - 24-male
 - 25-male
 - 26-male
 - 27-male

Are You Traveling in CIRCLES ?

... LOOKING FOR THAT APARTMENT or HOUSE

Call on the famous House Agent, Mr. J. J. Jones, who will find you the best apartment or house in the city. He will also find you the best price. He will also find you the best location. He will also find you the best view. He will also find you the best everything.

YESTERDAY'S ANSWERS
